STEELERS MVP

2025 STEELERS MVP
KENNETH GAINWELL

BY TERESA VARLEY | STEELERS.COM

W hen the Steelers signed running back Kenneth Gainwell to a one-year contract this past offseason, after he played four seasons for the Philadelphia Eagles, they were looking for someone to complement fellow running back Jaylen Warren.

They got a whole lot more.

“Kenny is an awesome football player. He’s multi-talented.”

- COACH MIKE TOMLIN

That is why Gainwell was voted the Steelers 2025 Most Valuable Player by his teammates.

“It’s crazy, but I’m very appreciative of those guys,” said Gainwell of his teammates selecting him. “I know they know how hard I work. It feels good to have those guys on my side.

“I think that’s the highest you can go. Team MVP. The guys know what the MVP can go out there and do. And it just feels good to have that coming from them.

“I think I put in enough work. Everybody on this team put in a lot of work to do what they have to do. But I think that I do have a lot of these guys on the team, and friends, and people that see me working real hard. And I appreciate it.”

Through the regular season, Gainwell had 114 carries for 537 yards, a 4.7-yard average and five rushing touchdowns. His 537 yards are ranked second on the team, behind only Warren.

“He really got on our radar when we played him a year ago in Philadelphia,” said Tomlin, who liked what he saw even though Gainwell played behind the Eagles Saquon Barkley. “He was really significant in that game. He returned kicks, covered kicks, and made a tackle on kickoff.

“THAT’S MY BROTHER.”

“He converted a couple of significant third downs in the first half that produced I think 17 points for them. Just Saquon casts a large shadow, so we thought he was a capable guy and there was more there if given an opportunity, and I think he’s proven that.”

He also had 73 receptions, which led the Steelers, for 486 yards, a 6.7-yard average, and three touchdown receptions. His 486 receiving yards are ranked third on the team, behind receiver DK Metcalf and tight end Pat Freiermuth.

“It’s not a vote that any of us take lightly,” said linebacker T.J. Watt, a five-time team MVP. “It’s a huge honor. Kenny G, he’s made so many plays in the run and pass.

“Great teammate as well. He works hard. Can’t say enough great things about him as a player and as a teammate. So, I’m just excited for him.”

His contributions don’t stop there. Gainwell also has returned 26 kickoffs for 633 yards, a 24-yard average, including a long of 36 yards.

Gainwell has 1,023 yards from scrimmage and 1,656 all-purpose yards, including his return yardage, in his first season in black and gold.

Receiver Calvin Austin III, who like Gainwell played at Memphis, has seen what Gainwell can do firsthand for a while.

“Anything I see now isn’t a surprise to me,” said Austin. “He literally does it all. He’s always been doing it, though.

“He’s just provided nothing but spark and consistency. What he can do on a football field isn’t a secret anymore.

Not that it has been, but I feel like I’ve always been saying from the beginning that he’s one of the best football players I’ve ever played with.

Now others are seeing even more of it.

“I think Calvin has seen a lot of crazy things that I’ve done at Memphis that a lot of people haven’t gotten opportunities to see,” said Gainwell. “I think now it’s just me getting opportunities to show those skill sets and put them on display at a high level. And there’s no higher than this.

“So, just going out there and just showing what I can really do. It’s just basically coming out and showing something.”

Gainwell said he voted for Warren, who he has developed a close relationship with since arriving in Pittsburgh.

“That’s my brother,” said Gainwell of Warren. “We talk about ball a lot. We talk about life a lot too. So, I think that’s just our relationship growing.

“Me and Jaylen just being on one accord when we need to know anything. It’s just grown with football, too. We feel like we’re best friends. We thrive off of each other.

“This running back room is special. I talked about that a lot. I don’t think we get the credit that we need to. We haven’t been doing what we needed to do early on in the season, but it doesn’t matter. It takes us doing what we have to do now.”

nd what he has been doing certainly hasn't gone unnoticed.

"Kenny's been unbelievable in the passing game, just unbelievable," said quarterback Aaron Rodgers. "And he's so dang smart.

"I was telling him, I wish I played with him for 10 years just because of the kind of player that he is.

"You just love playing with that guy."

Being smart was clearly on display on a play in the Steelers win over the Detroit Lions in Week 16.

And his play might have been foreshadowed when Lions Coach Dan Campbell praised him leading up to it.

"I like Gainwell, he's a good back," said Campbell. "And he is, he's versatile. He's got vision, he's pretty sneaky that way, shifty. And he is a good receiver."

Gainwell came up with one of the biggest plays in the game, and one of the best offensive plays of the season.

Calling it a 45-yard touchdown reception would be a disservice as it was much more than that.

With just seconds to play in the first half, and the Steelers trailing 10-3, Gainwell was knocked to the ground but still somehow managed to catch a long pass from Rodgers.

Gainwell had the wherewithal to get up after not being touched while he was on the ground, and scampered to the end zone for the touchdown to tie the game at the half.

"Aaron called a play and he told me just go out and run a go ball," said Gainwell. "It takes unbelievable concentration to catch a ball like that.

"I kind of lost it for a minute in the lights and then the last second it came to me. I just put my hand on the ground, and I don't know how I caught that, but caught it.

"Never give up on a play. Just go score."

"It takes unbelievable concentration, knowing that you have to come back to the ball. What I did was try to draw a flag. If the ball was going to be too far, I tried to draw a flag. But at the same time, I tried to come to the ball, and it just sat in my hands.

"I just caught it and went in and scored."

Gainwell's football IQ came in handy, knowing that the play was still live since he wasn't touched.

"That just goes with knowing the rules," said Gainwell. "Knowing if you catch a ball, get up and go score. No matter if I'm running the ball and I fall down, I know I have to get up, I'm not touched down.

"I knew I had to get up and go score. I didn't know if he touched me or not, but I got up and finished."

Gainwell also was a key factor in the Steelers win over the Miami Dolphins.

"Kenny had a fantastic game," said Rodgers.

Gainwell's role increased in the game with Warren playing, but dealing with an illness and limited some.

Gainwell had 80 yards rushing on 13 carries and a team-high seven receptions for 46 yards in the win.

"I prepare myself every week for RB1 position," said Gainwell. "Me going out working hard every week, it just shows."

When asked what works for him with the Steelers, Gainwell's answer was as simple as you can get.

"Aaron Rodgers," said Gainwell. "That's all I can say."

When pushed to expand on that, he did.

"Him trusting me, my hands, just doing the small things," said Gainwell. "Just went out there and worked."

Gainwell said he feels like Rodgers appreciates what he does, what he brings to the offense, and that coming from a future Hall of Fame quarterback means a lot.

"I think it just shows the character of him," said Gainwell. "Being the guy he is and he's just understanding the game."

"You just love playing with that guy."

- AARON RODGERS

Gainwell said he and Rodgers didn't really know each other prior to this season, but Gainwell, who is in his fifth season, has always been a fan of Rodgers, who is in his 21st season.

"I've just been watching him since I was a kid," said Gainwell. "So, I just admire that. Just understanding his game and just going out there, just happy to have him."

Gainwell also has been a component of the Steelers 'tush push,' and against the Bears, broke around right end for a 55-yard gain on what appeared to everyone as a tush push, coming up just one yard short of the goal line.

Gainwell finished that game with 10 carries for 92 yards, a 9.2-yard average, and six receptions for 30 yards, and said adding responsibility such as the 'tush push' play is something he welcomes.

"I'm taking that opportunity," said Gainwell. "I always talk about opportunities, and I'm taking full advantage of that."

"I'm just embracing it."

Gainwell is embracing everything about playing for the Steelers. He recently said Coach Mike Tomlin is someone he always wanted to play for, and this season in Pittsburgh has been special for him because of that.

"I've been a fan of Coach T ever since I was a kid."

"I've been a fan of Coach T ever since I was a kid," said Gainwell. "He's one of the coaches I've wanted to play football for a long time. And just to see 19 seasons, 19 non-losing seasons, that's a long record to hold as a coach."

"He's a great coach, and he'll bring in dawgs to come in and do exactly what we need to do to get a win this season."

"We just have to keep doing it."

And Gainwell knows he has to do his part.

He is a player some might not have had on their radar as the team MVP, a player who said he has been overlooked a lot in football, but there is no doubt he was the perfect choice.

"I think I've been looked over all my life," said Gainwell. "At the same time, I just keep my head down and work. Don't worry about the big moments, just go out there and handle my business."

He certainly isn't overlooked anymore.

"I don't worry about the big moments, I just go out there and handle my business."

HEAD COACH

MIKE TOMLIN

Mike Tomlin was named the 16th head coach in Pittsburgh Steelers history on January 22, 2007. Hired at the age of 34, Tomlin became only the third head coach hired by the Steelers since 1969.

In his 19 seasons as head coach for the Pittsburgh Steelers, Tomlin has accomplished many things that have never been done in the team's storied history. A franchise known for stability at the head coaching position, Tomlin ranks among the League's longest-tenured active head coaches entering the 2025 season.

Tomlin became the youngest head coach in NFL history to both coach in and win a Super Bowl when he led the Steelers to a 27-23 victory over the Arizona Cardinals in Super Bowl XLIII (36 years, 323 days), a record that held until it was eclipsed by Sean McVay in Super Bowl LVI (36 years, 20 days). By winning the Super Bowl in only his second season as a head coach, he also became the fastest to win a Super Bowl title in Steelers history.

During his head coaching tenure in Pittsburgh, Tomlin has led the Steelers to eight AFC North titles, most recently in 2025, and has guided the Steelers to the playoffs 13 times, including two trips to the Super Bowl (XLIII and XLV). Tomlin has won at least five home games in 18 of his first 19 years, including six in 2025. In his 19 seasons, he has never had a losing record.

Tomlin is the only head coach in League history to begin a head coaching tenure with at least 19 consecutive non-losing seasons. He has led the Steelers to a .500-or-better record in each of his 19 seasons as head coach. That is tied for the second-longest streak of .500-or-better seasons by a head coach in NFL history.

Tomlin has sent a total of 83 selections to the NFL's annual Pro Bowl, including the three players who received Pro Bowl honors for the 2025 season. Additionally, Tomlin was appointed by Commissioner Roger Goodell to the NFL's Competition Committee in March 2013.

Tomlin is just the eighth coach in NFL history to win a Super Bowl within his first two seasons as head coach. He is the only head coach in Steelers history to lead the team to two Super Bowls in his first four seasons at the helm, including an appearance against the Green Bay Packers in Super Bowl XLV. He is one of only two Steelers head coaches to win three division titles in his first four seasons.

Tomlin has led Pittsburgh to a 193-114-2 record in the regular season since becoming the team's head coach in 2007—the second-best record in the NFL during that time span, behind only Andy Reid. His 193-114-2 regular-season record (.628) is the best start in franchise history. Tomlin's 193 regular-season victories are the second-most among active NFL head coaches and tied for ninth-most in League history. Tomlin's .628 regular-season win percentage is the 11th-highest in NFL history (minimum 150 games).

Tomlin's 193 regular-season wins are the third-most in a coach's first 19 career seasons. His .628 regular-season win percentage is the sixth-best by a head coach in his first 19 career seasons.

Tomlin, who ranks eighth in NFL history with a regular-season record of 79 games over .500, Bill Belichick, Andy Reid and Marty Schottenheimer are the only coaches in NFL history with career records of 70 or more games over .500 not in the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

Tomlin is one of two active NFL head coaches with over 190 victories and one of four active NFL head coaches to defeat at least 31 current NFL franchises.

With a victory at Baltimore in Week 14, Tomlin became the 11th head coach in NFL history to reach 190 career wins. He registered 190 wins in 305 games coached, which was the fifth-fewest games in League history and second-fewest games since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger to reach the milestone.

Tomlin led the Steelers to their third straight 10-win season in 2025, the 12th time Pittsburgh has reached double-digit wins during his tenure. Chuck Noll (five, 1972-76), Tomlin once already (four, 2014-17) and Bill Cowher (four, 1994-97) are the only coaches in franchise history with a streak of 10+ win seasons longer. Tomlin's current streak of three straight 10-win seasons has also come with three different primary starting quarterbacks (Aaron Rodgers 2024, Russell Wilson 2024 and Kenny Pickett 2023). He is the fifth head coach since 1950 and first since Dennis Green, Minnesota (1998) to post three consecutive 10-win seasons with three different primary starting quarterbacks.

Tomlin led the Steelers to another 10-win season in 2023, the 10th time Pittsburgh has reached double-digit wins during his tenure. The Steelers played eight regular-season games vs. 2023 playoff teams, including both four at home and four on the road. Pittsburgh's eight regular-season games played vs. 2023 playoff foes was tied for the eighth-most in the NFL. Five teams in the League that qualified for the playoffs played at least eight games vs. 2023 playoff teams and only Baltimore played more such games and reached the postseason. The Steelers' five regular-season wins vs. 2023 playoff foes was tied for the third-most in the NFL this season.

Tomlin's young 2022 team improved dramatically over the course of the season, culminating in Tomlin's 16th-straight season of .500 or above with a record of 9-8. The Steelers started the season at 2-6 before their Week 9 bye, and went 7-2 the rest of the way. Pittsburgh's offense boasted the best third-down conversion rate and the third-most rushing yards in the League from Weeks 10 through 18 after starting the season ranked 24th in both categories. Defensively, Pittsburgh improved from ranking 29th in opponent yards per game to the stingiest defense in the League over the second half of the season, allowing an NFL-best 272.9 yards per game following their bye week. The Steelers defense also improved in getting off the field over the last nine weeks, allowing the third-least third-down conversions (36) and tying for the second-most interceptions (12). The team's 20 interceptions on the season tied for the most in the League.

VICTORIES

Tomlin is one of two active NFL head coaches with over 190 victories.

Tomlin's .628 regular-season win percentage is tied for the ninth-highest in NFL history (minimum 150 games)

In 2021, Tomlin led the Steelers to a 9-7-1 record and captured a playoff berth for the 10th time in his Steelers career. For the fifth-straight season, the Steelers led the NFL in sacks (55). The Pittsburgh defense sat atop the League in red zone defense allowing touchdowns on just 50.14% of red zone trips. Offensively, Pat Freiermuth and Najee Harris set several rookie franchise records and were two of five rookies starting in Week 1 of the season.

In 2020, Tomlin became one of just two head coaches in NFL history to begin a head coaching tenure with at least 14 consecutive non-losing seasons – joining Marty Schottenheimer (14, 1984-97). The Steelers began the season with an 11-0 win-streak, which culminated in a 12-4 regular-season record and Tomlin's ninth AFC North title. The 11-game winning streak (9/14/20-12/2/20) tied the longest regular season winning streak in franchise history. Over the past six seasons (2013-20), Tomlin has led the team to a 26-13 record in the month of December/January.

The Steelers offense dramatically improved in 2020, scoring at least 24 points in 11 regular season games after hitting the mark just five times in 2019. However, it was Pittsburgh's defense that once again showed its teeth, either topping or sharing the league lead in 20 different defensive categories including tackles for loss (103), sacks (56.0), interceptions (18), passes defended (84), quarterback pressures (198), defensive completion percentage (56.7%) and opposing QB rating (76.7). The unit also finished second in takeaways (27) and third in scoring defense (19.5).

Finishing the regular season as the AFC's No. 3 seed, Pittsburgh produced five Pro Bowlers—offensive linemen Maurkice Pouncey and David DeCastro and defenders Minkah Fitzpatrick, Cameron Heyward and T.J. Watt—marking the fourth consecutive season in which at least five Steelers were named to the Pro Bowl.

Pittsburgh was beset with injuries in 2019. The Steelers lost quarterback Ben Roethlisberger with a season-ending elbow injury in Week 2. Running back James Conner missed six games, wide receiver JuJu Smith-Schuster missed four games, and was sidelined for the majority of two others, and defensive end Stephon Tuitt missed the final 10 games of the season. Even backups – quarterback Mason Rudolph and running back Jaylen Samuels missed multiple games. Starting center Maurkice Pouncey missed three games. Starting left guard Ramon Foster and starting tight end Vance McDonald were both sidelined two games for concussions. Undrafted rookie free-agent Devlin Hodges was forced to play in eight games (six starts), and, despite an 0-3 start, Tomlin still led Pittsburgh to a record of 8-8.

Despite injuries, Pittsburgh's defense led or tied for the League-lead in sacks (54.0), quarterback hits (117), takeaways (36), fumble recoveries (17) and rush TDs allowed (7). The Steelers also ranked among the NFL's top-five in interceptions (2nd, 20), interception rate (2nd, 3.89%), passing defense (3rd, 194.6), yards per play allowed (3rd, 4.74), passes defended (3rd, 83), yards per rush allowed (3rd, 3.79), forced fumbles (t-3rd, 19), tackles for loss (t-3rd, 90), opposing passer rating (4th, 80.7), pass yards per attempt allowed (4th, 6.06), total defense (5th, 304.1), scoring defense (t-5th, 18.9) and offensive TDs allowed (5th, 30).

During the 2019 season, Tomlin reached 125 career wins in the fewest games (192) in team history, tying him with Bud Grant for the fifth-fewest games by an NFL head coach to secure 125 regular season wins. He was the third head coach in NFL history with 133 or more regular season wins in their first 13 seasons as a head coach, joining Tony Dungy: 139 and Shula: 138.

Tomlin led the Steelers to a record of 9-6-1 in 2018. With a Week 5 win against Atlanta, he and quarterback Ben Roethlisberger broke a tie with Chuck Noll and Terry Bradshaw for the most wins by a head coach-quarterback tandem in franchise history. The duo's 127 regular-season wins (2007-20) are now third-most by a head coach-quarterback pairing in NFL history, trailing only the tandems of Sean Payton/Drew Brees and Bill Belichick/Tom Brady.

Roethlisberger set single-season franchise records for touchdown passes (34), pass completions (452) and passing yards (5,129) in 2018, while leading all NFL players in pass completions and passing yardage. Wide receiver Antonio Brown led the NFL with a single-season franchise record 15 TD catches. Brown and second-year wide receiver JuJu Smith-Schuster also made history, becoming the sixth wide receiver duo in NFL history and first in Steelers history to record 100 receptions and 1,000 yards apiece in a single season. Smith-Schuster was voted Team MVP for his breakout year.

With Tomlin at the helm, six Steelers were named to the Pro Bowl for their 2018 performances — the third consecutive season with at least five selections. Brown, running back James Conner, defensive tackle Cameron Heyward and offensive linemen DeCastro, Maurkice Pouncey and Villanueva all received Pro Bowl accolades.

In 2017, Tomlin led the Steelers to a 13-3 record, including a 6-0 record against the AFC North, securing his sixth division title and a No. 2 seed in the AFC for the postseason. The team's 13 wins marked the most wins in a single season in the Tomlin era.

Under Tomlin's guidance, Roethlisberger became the eighth quarterback in NFL history to reach 50,000 passing yards, finishing the 2017 season with a career total of 51,065. Brown was voted team MVP for his outstanding performance and became the first Steeler to earn the honor four times (2011, '13, '15 and '17). Brown led the league with 1,533 receiving yards and set an NFL record for the most receptions (582) and receiving yards (7,848) by a player in any five-year span in League history. For the second straight season, running back Le'Veon Bell led the AFC in scrimmage yards per game (129.7) and surpassed his own Steelers single-season record for receptions by a running back with 85. Defensively, the team led the NFL and set a Steelers single-season record with 56 sacks in 2017.

For their efforts, Roethlisberger, Brown and Bell were named to the Pro Bowl along with kicker Chris Boswell, linebacker Ryan Shazier, and offensive linemen DeCastro, Maurkice Pouncey and Villanueva. Brown, Bell and DeCastro were also named AP All-Pro, along with Heyward. Heyward and fullback Roosevelt Nix were also added to the Pro Bowl roster prior to the game.

The Steelers finished with an 11-5 record in 2016, and won each of the team's final seven regular-season games, to secure the AFC North title and No. 3 seed in the AFC for the postseason. It marked the fifth time Tomlin led the Steelers to at least 11 wins in the regular season. Pittsburgh won its first two postseason games, vs. Miami in an AFC Wild Card Game and at Kansas City in an AFC Divisional Playoff, before falling to the New England Patriots in the AFC Championship Game.

Bell was voted the Steelers' MVP for his 2016 efforts. He led the NFL in scrimmage yards per game (157.0), and he became the fastest player in NFL history to reach 3,000 rushing yards and 1,500 receiving yards in his career (38 games). In the Steelers' Week 14 victory at Buffalo in 2016, Bell set the single-game team record with 236 rushing yards and tied the single-game team mark with three rushing TDs.

Roethlisberger and Brown continued to etch their names in NFL history. Roethlisberger finished the season with the ninth-most passing TDs in NFL history (301) and the 10th-most passing yards in NFL history (46,814). Brown set numerous NFL records, including one for the most receptions in a player's first 100 career regular-season games (622) and one for the most receptions in NFL history by a player in any four-year span (481).

Tomlin also reached his 100th career win in 2016 and did so in the fewest games (157) in team history. He became the eighth head coach in NFL history to reach 100 regular-season wins in their first 10 seasons.

Despite significant injuries to multiple starters during the 2015 season, the Steelers finished with a 10-6 record (2nd in the AFC North) and advanced to the Divisional Round of the playoffs. The Steelers finished third in the NFL in total offense (1st in the AFC), while the defense posted 48 sacks under first-year defensive coordinator Keith Butler. The 48 sacks were the third most in the NFL in 2015.

In 2014, Tomlin orchestrated one of the top offensive outputs in team history. The Steelers broke numerous offensive records, including points scored (436), total yards (6,577), passing yards per game (301.6) and total first downs (379). On an individual basis in 2014, Tomlin guided Roethlisberger, Brown and Bell — who all made the Pro Bowl — to record-setting years.

Arguably one of his best coaching performances may have come in the second half of the 2013 season. Despite an 0-4 and 2-6 start to the season, the Steelers finished the regular season surging to a 6-2 second-half record, falling just short of the playoffs.

In 2012, Tomlin led the Steelers to a 27-10 victory over the New York Jets in the home opener, becoming the first coach in team history to win his first six home openers. The Steelers finished the season with the top-ranked overall defense (275.8 yards/game) and finished first in passing defense (185.2 yards/game).

In 2011, Tomlin led the Steelers to a 12-4 record, marking the second straight season the team posted 12 wins, which was only the second time in team history it had been achieved. The Steelers finished the season with the top-ranked total defense (271.8 ypg) and scoring defense (14.2 ppg). Pittsburgh posted a 7-1 record at home in 2011, for the second time in Tomlin's career (2007). He also had five players (Roethlisberger, Mike Wallace, Pouncey, Troy Polamalu and Brown) selected to the Pro Bowl following the season.

Tomlin's seven road wins during the 2010 regular season tied a Steelers record previously set in 1978 and 2004. The Steelers finished second in total defense under Tomlin's guidance in 2010, allowing only 276.8 yards per game. Pittsburgh led the NFL and set a team record in rushing defense, yielding only 62.8 yards per game (1,004 yards), the third-best total in NFL history dating back to 1970. The Steelers also established an NFL record in 2010 by not allowing an opponent to rush for more than 75 yards in any of their first eight games during the regular season.

In all, the Steelers' defense led the NFL in 2010 in rushing yards allowed (62.8 yds./game), points allowed (232), touchdowns allowed (22), quarterback sacks (48), rushing average (3.0), yards per play (4.5) and yards allowed on first down (4.08). It finished second in the league in passing average (6.31), turnover advantage (+14) and red-zone efficiency (40.0, tied).

Under Tomlin, the Steelers broke new ground on offense in 2009. Pittsburgh's offense ranked seventh in the NFL (ninth passing, 19th rushing) but became the first unit in team history to boast a 4,000-yard passer (Roethlisberger), two 1,000-yard receivers (Hines Ward, Santonio Holmes) and a 1,000-yard rusher (Rashard Mendenhall) in the same season. Pittsburgh's defense ranked fifth in the NFL (third vs. run, 16th vs. pass) while leading the AFC and finishing one shy of the NFL lead with 47 quarterback sacks.

The Steelers continued to be dominant at home under Tomlin in 2009. Pittsburgh finished with a 6-2 home record after finishing 7-1 (2007) and 6-2 (2008) at home during Tomlin's first two seasons.

Tomlin finished the 2008 season with a 12-4 record and his second consecutive AFC North Division title, becoming the only Steelers head coach to win division crowns in each of his first two seasons. He also set a record with 22 regular-season wins in his first two years at the helm and is the only Steelers head coach to win at least 10 games in each of his first two seasons. Tomlin's .688 winning percentage (22-10) after two years is the best in Steelers history.

The Steelers' defense was dominant under Tomlin's guidance in 2008, leading the NFL in total defense (237.2), pass defense (156.9), points per game (13.9), total yards per play (3.9), rushing yards per attempt (3.3), passing yards per attempt (4.7) and third-down efficiency (31.4), while finishing second in rush defense (80.3).

Tomlin led the Steelers to a 10-6 record in 2007 and became just the second coach in team history to post a winning record, win a division title and earn a playoff berth in his inaugural season. Tomlin began his head coaching career by becoming only the second Steelers head coach to win his first three games. During 2007, the Steelers became just the fifth team in NFL history to win their first four home games by at least 20 points.

Tomlin guided the Steelers to the NFL's top-ranked defense in 2007, yielding only 266.4 yards per game. The Steelers' defense ranked third in the NFL against both the run (89.9 avg.) and the pass (176.5 avg.), and finished third in the league in total yards allowed per play (4.6). Pittsburgh's defense led the NFL in passing yards per play (5.7) and first downs allowed per game (15.6), and finished second in the league in points allowed per game (16.8).

The Steelers' offense finished third in the NFL in rushing (135.5 avg.) during Tomlin's first season, sparked by Willie Parker, who led the league in rushing before injuring his leg in Week 16. Roethlisberger enjoyed a record-setting season during Tomlin's first year, establishing new team records for TD passes (32) and passer rating (104.1) while earning his first career Pro Bowl appearance.

Tomlin was the NFL's second-youngest head coach in 2007, and he became only the second Steelers coach in team history to win at least 10 games during his first year at the helm. The Steelers posted a 7-1 record at home in 2007 and were 5-1 in the AFC North (3-0 at home).

Tomlin spent the 2006 season as the Minnesota Vikings' defensive coordinator. That season, the Vikings ranked eighth in the NFL in total defense and first against the run while not allowing a 100-yard rusher the entire season.

Tomlin was the defensive backs coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers from 2001-05. In 2002, Tomlin guided one of the most productive defensive backfields in the NFL, culminating with its performance in Super Bowl XXXVII. The secondary recorded four of the team's five interceptions, returning two for touchdowns, to help Tampa Bay capture the franchise's first Super Bowl title.

Before joining Tampa Bay's staff, Tomlin served two seasons as the defensive backs coach at the University of Cincinnati (1999-00). He took over a secondary that ranked 111th in the nation in pass defense in 1998 and helped them improve to 61st overall in his first season. Under Tomlin's direction in 2000, the Bearcats ranked eighth in the nation in interceptions as well as fourth nationally in total turnovers.

Prior to joining the Cincinnati staff, Tomlin had a short stint on the coaching staff at Tennessee-Martin and then spent two seasons at Arkansas State, coaching wide receivers in 1997 before switching to defensive backs in 1998.

Tomlin spent the 1996 season as a graduate assistant at the University of Memphis, where he worked with the Tiger defensive backs and special teams units. He began his coaching career in 1995 as wide receivers coach at Virginia Military Institute.

Tomlin was a three-year starter at wide receiver at William & Mary (1990-94) and finished his career with 101 receptions for 2,054 yards and 20 TD catches. A first-team All-Yankee Conference selection in 1994, he established a school record with a 20.2 yards-per-catch average.

Tomlin is very active in the community and was recognized, along with his wife Kiya, in February 2013 by the Chuck Cooper Foundation with the Career Achievement in Leadership Diversity and Community Service Award. Tomlin also participates in the annual ManUp Pittsburgh conference which encourages local men to be better fathers and role models.

HISTORY

Tomlin became the 8th head coach in NFL history to reach 190 career wins.

PITTSBURGH STEELERS

ASSISTANT COACHES

TERYL
AUSTIN
DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Teryl Austin is in his fourth season as the Steelers' defensive coordinator. He was promoted after three seasons as Pittsburgh's senior defensive assistant/secondary coach on February 6, 2022. This marks his 21st year in the National Football League coaching ranks.

In his three years as defensive coordinator (2022-24), the Steelers rank in the top-10 in the NFL in interceptions (t-1st, 53), interception rate (t-1st, 3.1%), takeaways (2nd, 83), fewest first downs allowed/game (3rd, 18.6), opposing completion percentage (5th, 62.6%), scoring defense (5th, 19.9), redzone efficiency (5th, 51.9%), opposing TD/INT ratio (5th, 1.4), forced fumbles (t-5th, 45), rush defense (7th, 107.3), opposer passer rating (8th, 86.4) and yards/rush (9th, 4.2).

The 2024 Steelers' defense were particularly stout against the run, finishing sixth in rush defense (98.7 yards/game) and fourth in yards/carry (4.1). The defense also tied for the League-lead with 33 takeaways, fueled by Cam Heyward and T.J. Watt.

Heyward earned first-team All-Pro honors for the fourth time in his career, recording 71 tackles, 8.0 sacks, 12 tackles for a loss, 20 quarterback hits and 11 pass defenses, which led all NFL defensive linemen.

It was one of Heyward's most complete seasons in his career. He got more votes than any other defensive tackle in the NFL for the Associated Press All-Pro Team, showing just how dominant a season he posted.

Watt was voted the team MVP for a record fifth time after a season in which he had 61 tackles, including 19 for a loss, 11.5 sacks, a league-high six forced fumbles, 27 quarterback hits and four pass defenses. He also was named second-team All-Pro and finalist for NFL Defensive Player of the Year.

Prior to his time in Pittsburgh, Austin served as defensive coordinator for the Detroit Lions (2014-17), before a one-year stint in the same role with the Cincinnati Bengals (2018).

Austin's college coaching career began as a graduate assistant at Penn State (1991-92). He held stints as the defensive backs coach at Wake Forest (1993-95), Syracuse (1996-98) and Michigan (1999-2002). Austin was a three-year starter and four-year letterman at safety for the University of Pittsburgh from 1983-87. He earned a bachelor's degree in communications from Pittsburgh in 1988. Austin played for the Montreal Machine of the World League of American Football in 1991.

Austin, a native of Sharon, Pa., attended Sharon (Pa.) High School. He and his wife, April, have five children, including sons Tyler, Trey and Torin, and daughters Alexa and Alivia.

Arthur Smith, previous head coach for the Atlanta Falcons for three years (2021-23), is in his second season as the Steelers' offensive coordinator in 2025. This marks his 17th year in the National Football League coaching ranks.

The Steelers' offense in 2024 showed signs of progress under Smith. Pittsburgh improved in total offense, rush offense and scoring offense in 2024.

The Steelers leaned heavily on the run, ranking 11th in the League in rush offense (127.4 yards/game) and logging the fourth-most rushing attempts in the NFL.

Pittsburgh's 317.2 yards/game was up from 304.3 in 2023. The Steelers also averaged 22.4 points/game last season, up from 17.9 points/game in 2023. The Steelers threw 21 TD passes in 2024. They had just 13 in 2023. Pittsburgh threw just six interceptions. Only the Chargers (three) and Ravens (four) threw fewer.

Under Smith, the Falcons led the NFL in fewest penalties (2022), ranked third in successful play rate on rushing attempts, based on EPA, (2022), finished third in rushing yards/game (2022), ninth in rushing yards/game (2023), 10th in third-down conversion rate (2022), 13th in third-down conversion rate (2023) and 13th in passing yards/attempt (2023).

Smith served under four different Titans head coaches, working his way up from his 2011 position of defensive assistant/quality control coach. He also spent time as an offensive assistant/quality control coach (2012), offensive line/tight ends assistant (2013), and assistant tight ends coach (2014-15) before taking over as tight ends coach during the 2015 season and holding the position through 2018.

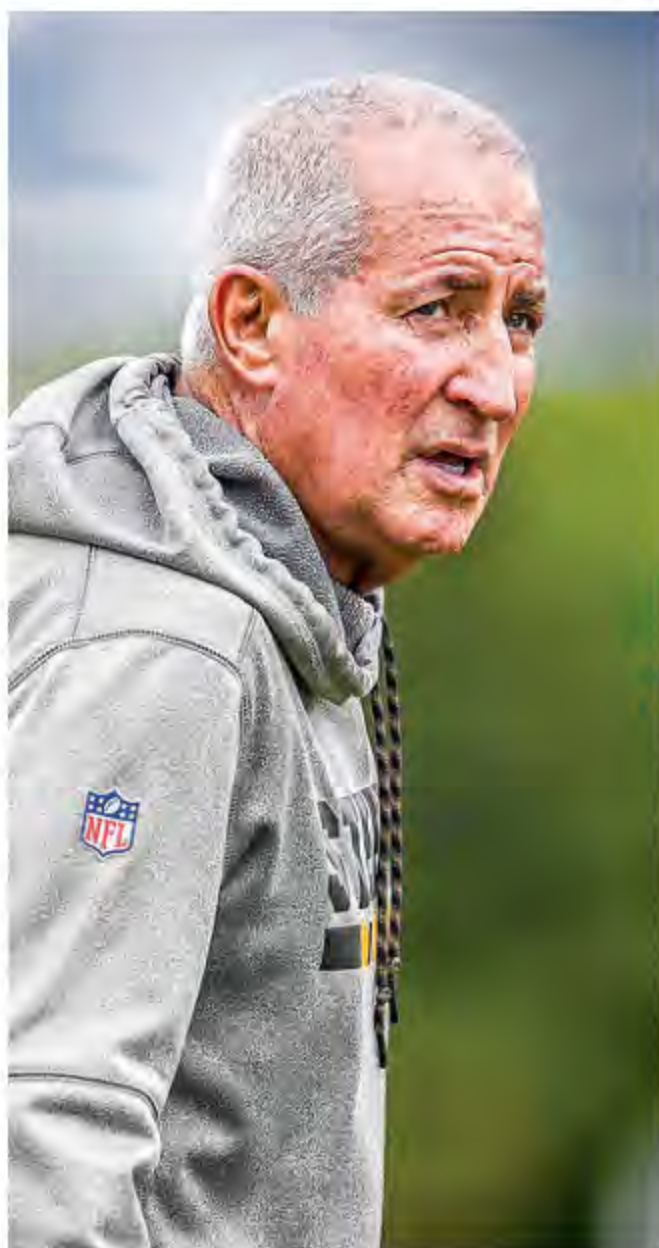

Prior to joining the Titans, Smith spent two years as the defensive quality control coach for the Washington Commanders under Joe Gibbs (2007-08). In addition to his coaching role, he also worked as a college scouting assistant in Washington in 2007. In 2010, Smith worked at Ole Miss as an administrative assistant/defensive intern, working primarily with the linebackers.

Born and raised in Memphis, Tenn., Smith graduated from North Carolina where he played offensive line and later joined the Tar Heels coaching staff as a graduate assistant (2006), working with the offensive line.

Smith and his wife, Allison, have two sons, Tanner and Liam, and one daughter, Sophie.

ARTHUR SMITH
OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

DANNY SMITH

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

Danny Smith is in his 13th season with the Steelers as the special teams coordinator. Smith was hired on January 31, 2013.

Since joining the Steelers in 2015, kicker Chris Boswell is 272-of-309 overall on field goal attempts (88.0%), including 123-of-153 (80.4%) from 40 yards or longer. He ranks second in field goal percentage (88.0%) among all NFL kickers with at least 300 field goal attempts since the start of the 2015 season. Boswell's 88.0 field goal percent ranks first in Steelers history among kickers with at least 300 field goal attempts. He has registered a franchise-record 10 career game-winning field goals (last five min. of the fourth quarter or overtime for a lead change.)

In 2024, Boswell led the NFL in field goals made (41), points by a kicker (158) and field goal percentage (93.2, min. 35 FGA), and also ranked second in field goals attempted (44). His 158 points are tied for the fifth-most by any kicker since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger. His 41 field goals made in 2024 are the second-most by any kicker since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger.

Prior to joining Pittsburgh, Smith served as the Washington Football Team's special teams coordinator from 2004-2012. He helped establish Washington's special teams as one of the top coverage and return units in the NFL.

Born and raised in Pittsburgh, Smith attended Pittsburgh Central Catholic High School. He coached at Central Catholic (1977-78), helping tutor future Pro Football Hall of Fame quarterback Dan Marino. Smith is married to Elaine, of Ambridge, Pa. They have three children, Erin, Courtney and Jason.

TOM ARTH

QUARTERBACKS COACH

Tom Arth is in his second season as the Steelers' quarterbacks coach in 2025.

The Steelers completely made over their quarterback room in 2024.

The Steelers went from averaging 186.1 yards passing/game with 13 TD passes and nine interceptions in 2023 to 192.0 passing yards/game with 21 TD passes and just six interceptions.

The combination of Russell Wilson and Justin Fields also rushed 105 times for 444 yards and seven more TDs.

Arth came to Pittsburgh from the L.A. Chargers where he served as passing game specialist for two seasons (2022-23). He helped the Chargers rank fifth in passing offense (251.2 ypg.) and No. 11 in total offense (344.3 ypg.) over his tenure. Arth helped quarterback Justin Herbert continue to set records, as no player has more completions (1,613) or passing yards (18,134) over the first four seasons of a career. Herbert's 114 passing TDs and 125 total TDs rank second in League history – only Dan Marino (142) and Josh Allen (135) registered more, respectively, over their first four seasons in the NFL.

Arth holds nine years of collegiate head coaching acumen and three seasons of NFL playing experience to the offensive staff. He spent three years (2019-21) as the head coach at the University of Akron following two seasons (2017-18) at the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga. His first four years were spent at his alma mater, John Carroll University (2013-16).

Over Arth's four seasons as head coach at John Carroll, he posted a 40-8 record and earned three postseason appearances. He was named Ohio Athletic Conference Coach of the Year twice (2013, 2016) — including National Coach of the Year recognition in 2016.

Arth started four seasons at quarterback for the Blue Streaks, setting 18 school records over his playing career. He earned consensus All-America recognition, was named to D3Football.com's All-Decade Team (2000s) and was inducted into the university's athletic Hall of Fame in 2013.

Arth signed with the Indianapolis Colts in 2003, spending three seasons (2003-05) as a backup to Peyton Manning.

Arth and his wife, Lauren, have five children, Carolina, Tommy, Kate, Patrick and Elizabeth.

ZACH AZZANNI

WIDE RECEIVERS COACH

Zach Azzanni is in his second season as the Steelers' wide receivers coach in 2025.

Azzanni mentored the breakout of third-year wideout Calvin Austin III in 2024. Austin III finished the season with 36 receptions for 548 yards and four TDs, averaging 15.2 yards/catch and showing he could be a big-play contributor. Austin also served as the team's punt returner and ranked seventh in the NFL with a 10.3-yard average.

Azzanni has coached wide receivers for 27 years, spending seven seasons coaching that group with N.Y. Jets (2023), Denver Broncos (2018-22) and Chicago Bears (2017), following 18 years at the collegiate level.

In 2023, wide receiver Garrett Wilson surpassed 1,000 receiving yards, making him the first wideout in Jets history to record 1,000 yards receiving in each of his first two seasons.

In 2020, Azzanni coached first-round pick Jerry Jeudy, who registered 52 catches for 856 yards (16.5 avg.) with three TDs – the second-most receptions (52) and receiving yards (856) by a Denver rookie.

Azzanni coached Sutton to his first career Pro Bowl selection after leading the team with 72 receptions for 1,112 yards with six TDs.

Before his lone season with the Bears (2017), Azzanni spent four years at the University of Tennessee as wide receivers coach/recruiting coordinator in 2013 before being promoted to passing game coordinator/wide receivers coach in 2015.

Azzanni spent one season each at the University of Wisconsin (2012 – wide receivers coach), Western Kentucky University (2011 – offensive coordinator/wide receivers) and the University of Florida (2010 – wide receivers/passing game coordinator).

Azzanni coached in three bowl games at Florida and Wisconsin and won the Big Ten Championship in 2012.

Azzanni spent three years as assistant head coach/wide receivers at his alma mater, Central Michigan University.

After beginning his coaching career as wide receivers coach for Valparaiso University (1999-2000), Azzanni was a graduate assistant under Head Coach Urban Meyer at Bowling Green (2001-02) and later as wide receivers coach (2003-06).

A former wide receiver at Central Michigan (1994-98), Azzanni graduated with a degree in sports management in 1999.

Azzanni and his wife, Julia, have four daughters, Ava, Lyla, Zia and Lucia.

GERALD ALEXANDER

DEFENSIVE BACKS COACH

Gerald Alexander is in his sixth year in the NFL, third season with the Steelers and first as Pittsburgh's defensive backs coach in 2025. He previously spent two years as the Steelers' assistant defensive backs coach (2022-23). Alexander was hired by the Steelers on Feb. 11, 2025.

Over his first tenure in Pittsburgh, the Steelers secondary recorded 36 interceptions, which was tied for the second-most in the NFL. Pittsburgh's defense allowed an 84.7 opponent passer rating in 2023, which was the 10th-best in the League. In 2022, Alexander coached a secondary that tied for NFL lead in interceptions with 20.

Alexander served as defensive backs coach for Miami from 2020-21. In 2021, the Dolphins allowed an 85.4 opponent passer rating, which was the seventh-best mark in the League. In 2020, his defensive backs tied for first in the NFL in interceptions (18). Xavier Howard led the League in interceptions (10) and pass breakups (20), and earned First Team All-Pro honors.

Alexander also held three NFL minority coaching internships with Tennessee (2015), Tampa Bay (2016) and Miami (2019).

Alexander coached at the college level, with stops at California (2017-19), Montana State (2016), Indiana State (2015), Washington (2014) and Arkansas State (2013).

As a player, Alexander was chosen in the second round (61st overall) of the 2007 NFL Draft. He appeared in 44 games (starting 30) over his five-year NFL career with Detroit (2007-08), Jacksonville (2009-10), Carolina (2010), Miami (2011) and N.Y. Jets (2011). Alexander finished with 154 tackles (116 solo), 14 passes defended, four forced fumbles, four interceptions, three fumble recoveries and 2.0 sacks.

Alexander played safety at Boise State (2003-06) and graduated with a degree in communications. He helped the Broncos to four straight conference titles, a 46-6 record and 13-0 and Fiesta Bowl Championship season as a senior in 2006.

A native of Los Angeles, Calif., Alexander and his wife, Krystina, have three sons – Kaelin, Kamari and Kaleel – and one daughter, Kahrye.

SCOTT MCCURLEY

INSIDE LINEBACKERS COACH

Scott McCurley is in his first season as the Steelers' linebackers coach in 2025.

McCurley most recently served as the linebackers coach for the Dallas Cowboys for five seasons (2020-24). With the Cowboys, McCurley guided a linebacker unit that accounted for 22 of the team's 52 sacks during the 2024 season, which was the third-highest total in the NFL. His group was led by Micah Parsons, who recorded a team-best 12.0 sacks on the season, becoming the first player since Reggie White in 1982 to record at least 12.0 sacks in their first four seasons. Parsons went on to be named to his fourth consecutive Pro Bowl in 2024.

Prior to his time with the Cowboys, he spent 13 seasons with the Green Bay Packers working as a defensive assistant (2018), assistant linebackers coach (2014-17), defensive quality control coach (2009-13) and in coaching administration (2006-08). He spent the 2019 season away from football.

McCurley started his NFL career as a coaching admin with the Packers from 2006-08.

Prior to joining the Packers, McCurley enjoyed a lengthy playing and coaching career at the University of Pittsburgh. Originally a walk-on athlete who redshirted his first year, McCurley earned a scholarship after his freshman season. He lettered all four years at linebacker (1999-2002) and earned a spot on the 1999 Big East All-Academic team. After graduating in 2003 with a bachelor's degree in movement science with a coaching minor, McCurley remained with the program as a defensive graduate assistant, where the 2004 team he coached won the Big East championship and a spot in the Fiesta Bowl.

A native of New Castle, Pa., McCurley attended Mohawk High School in Bessemer, Pa., where he earned all-conference honors in his junior and senior years, playing linebacker and offensive line, while also playing basketball.

McCurley and his wife, Colleen, have two sons, Quentin and Deacon.

KARL DUNBAR

DEFENSIVE LINE COACH

Karl Dunbar is in his eighth season as the Steelers' defensive line coach and his 19th year as a defensive line coach in the NFL. He was hired by the Steelers on February 8, 2018.

In 2024, Dunbar once again oversaw a productive defensive front. Cameron Heyward earned first-team All-Pro honors for the fourth time in his career, recording 71 tackles, 8.0 sacks, 12 tackles for a loss, 20 quarterback hits and 11 pass defenses, which led all NFL defensive linemen.

It was one of Heyward's most complete seasons in his career. He got more votes than any other defensive tackle in the NFL for the Associated Press All-Pro Team, showing just how dominant a season he posted.

T.J. Watt was voted the team MVP for a team-record fifth time after a season in which he had 61 tackles, including 19 for a loss, 11.5 sacks, a league-high six forced fumbles, 27 quarterback hits and four pass defenses. He also was named second-team All-Pro and is a finalist for NFL Defensive Player of the Year.

In 2023, Watt became the first player since 1982, when the individual sack became an official statistic, to lead the League in sacks three times (2020, 2021 and 2023). He surpassed his brother J.J. Watt, Reggie White, DeMarcus Ware, Michael Strahan, Kevin Greene, Mark Gastineau and Jared Allen, who each led the League in sacks twice.

Under the tutelage of Dunbar, Watt became the seventh Steeler (eighth time) in franchise history to be named NFL Defensive Player of the Year, finishing the season with a league-leading 22.5 sacks and 21 TFL (tied with Nick Bosa).

In 2020, Dunbar's defensive line led the League in sacks (56.0), quarterback hits (136) and quarterback pressures (198). The Steelers tied a franchise record with at least 5.0 sacks in three straight games (Weeks 2-6).

Heyward was named an All-Pro in 2019 for the second time in his career (2017). Heyward finished the season with 9.0 sacks, 22 quarterback hits, 11 tackles for a loss and six passes defended. Heyward not only led all NFL defensive tackles in stops with 83, but he also led the League in tackles by a defensive lineman.

Dunbar's first coaching stint in the NFL was with the Chicago Bears in 2004. He began his coaching career at Opelousas (La.) High School in 1986 before advancing to Beau Chene (La.) High School in 1997.

Dunbar and his wife, Pamela, have three children: Karmichael Mackenzie II, Mickel Angelle and Nickolette Alyse. A native of Opelousas, La., Dunbar graduated from LSU with a bachelor's degree in criminal justice.

EDDIE FAULKNER

RUNNING BACKS COACH

Eddie Faulkner is in his seventh season as the running backs coach for the Steelers, after being hired on January 17, 2019.

The running back group was assured of being a big part of every game plan under first-year offensive coordinator Arthur Smith in 2024. That proved to be the case, as only the Eagles and Ravens ran the ball a higher percentage than the 52.1 the Steelers posted in 2024.

Najee Harris led the way with 263 carries for 1,043 yards and six TDs. He also caught 36 passes for 283 yards. It was Harris' fourth-consecutive 1,000-yard season to open his career, making him just the 14th player in league history to do so.

Faulkner mentored the tandem of Harris and Jaylen Warren, each of whom eclipsed 1,000 scrimmage yards in 2023. Harris and Warren were the fourth duo in franchise history to eclipse 1,000 scrimmage yards in the same season and first since Walter Abercrombie and Earnest Jackson in 1986.

In 2022, with Faulkner's guidance, Harris eclipsed 1,000 rushing yards for the second consecutive season, becoming the first running back in franchise history to do so in each of his first two seasons.

Faulkner oversaw the development of Harris in 2021 who led the NFL in touches (377), led all NFL running backs in catches (74) and finished the season with the most rushes (307), rushing yards (1,200), catches and receiving yards (467) by a rookie running back in franchise history, culminating in a trip to the Pro Bowl.

Prior to joining the Steelers, Faulkner spent six years, 2013-18, at NC State as the school's tight ends/fullbacks/special teams coordinator.

Faulkner spent the 2012 season at the University of Wisconsin coaching the Badgers' tight ends.

Jacob Pederson won All-Big Ten honors and the League's Kwalick-Clark Tight End of the Year award.

In 2011, Faulkner held the running backs/special teams coordinator title at Northern Illinois University.

Following the 2002 season at Anderson University, Faulkner spent the 2003-10 campaigns at Ball State University, serving as a graduate assistant (2003-04), running backs/special teams (2005-08) and the offensive coordinator/running backs (2009-10), including a stint as the school's interim head coach at the end of the 2010 season.

Faulkner, a member of two Big Ten championship teams as Wisconsin's running back, rushed for 1,064 yards and 7 TDs in his collegiate career from 1996-2000.

DENZEL MARTIN

OUTSIDE LINEBACKERS COACH

Watt, who garnered AP First Team All-Pro honors for the fourth time in his seven year career, was selected by the NFL Committee of 101 as the 2023 AFC Defensive Player of the Year. He has now captured the award three times in the last four years (2020, 2021 and 2023).

In his third season in 2022, Martin worked with a defense that consistently improved over the course of the year, holding opponents to 17 points or less through its final seven games.

With Martin's assistance, Watt became the NFL's 2021 Defensive Player of the Year, tallying a career-high 22.5 sacks, 21 tackles for loss and five forced fumbles.

In 2020, Martin assisted with one of the top pass-rushing units in the NFL, which included the tandem of Watt and Bud Dupree, who combined for 23.0 sacks, 56 quarterback hits and 31 tackles for loss.

Prior to joining the Steelers in 2016, Martin spent a year as a recruiting graduate assistant at the University of Missouri in 2015, where he played linebacker from 2010-14. Martin, a native of St. Louis, Mo., received a degree in multidisciplinary studies in 2014 and a master's in education with an emphasis in positive coaching from Missouri in 2015.

In 2023, Watt became the first player since 1982 to lead the League in sacks three times (2020, 2021 and 2023). He surpassed his brother J.J. Watt, Reggie White, DeMarcus Ware, Michael Strahan, Kevin Greene, Mark Gastineau and Jared Allen, who each led the League in sacks twice.

ASSISTANT COACHES

Pat Meyer is entering his fourth season as the Steelers' offensive line coach in 2025. He was hired by Pittsburgh on February 15, 2022.

Meyer, who boasted 20 years of coaching experience prior to his arrival in Pittsburgh, including nine in the NFL, joined the Steelers after two seasons with the Carolina Panthers as their offensive line coach (2020-21). He also coached offensive line in the NFL with the L.A. Chargers (2017-19) and Chicago Bears (2013-14).

The Steelers selected three offensive linemen in the 2024 NFL Draft, taking tackle Troy Fautanu in the first round, center Zach Frazier in the second and guard Mason McCormick in the fourth, one year after the selection of Broderick Jones in the first round and Spencer Anderson in the seventh.

The Steelers started four different line combinations in the first six games because of injuries, but Meyer mentored Frazier with being if not the best rookie offensive linemen in the NFL in 2024, then most certainly the best center.

Isaac Williams is entering his fifth season as the Steelers' assistant offensive line coach in 2025. He was hired by Pittsburgh on March 15, 2022.

The Steelers selected three offensive linemen in the 2024 NFL Draft, taking tackle Troy Fautanu in the first round, center Zach Frazier in the second and guard Mason McCormick in the fourth, one year after the selection of Broderick Jones in the first round and Spencer Anderson in the seventh.

The Steelers started four different line combinations in the first six games because of injuries, but Meyer mentored Frazier with being if not the best rookie offensive linemen in the NFL in 2024, then most certainly the best center.

McCormick moved into the starting lineup at right guard when James Daniels suffered a season-ending Achilles' tendon injury and played well, particularly showing his chops as a run blocker.

McCormick moved into the starting lineup at right guard when James Daniels suffered a season-ending Achilles' tendon injury and played well, particularly showing his chops as a run blocker.

Meyer's unit blocked for Najee Harris and Jaylen Warren, who each eclipsed 1,000 scrimmage yards in 2023. They're the fourth duo in franchise history to eclipse 1,000 scrimmage yards in the same season.

In his first year in Pittsburgh, the run game improved from ranking 24th in the League through the first half of the season, to finishing third-best after Week 10.

Prior to Carolina, Meyer served as the offensive line coach for the Chargers for three years, and also spent two seasons with the Buffalo Bills (2015-16).

Meyer began his NFL coaching career with the Chicago Bears, first as an assistant offensive line coach in 2013 before taking over the primary coaching duties in 2014.

Meyer spent one season in the Canadian Football League in 2012, where was an offensive line coach and offensive coordinator for the Montreal Alouettes.

Meyer began coaching as a graduate assistant at Memphis in 1997, where he served multiple roles.

Meyer led the strength and conditioning program at NC State for six years (2000-05) before becoming their offensive line coach in 2006.

In 2007, Meyer headed the strength and conditioning staff at Florida State. He returned to his alma mater, Colorado State, for three seasons (2008-11).

Meyer played offensive line at Colorado State from 1991-94, where he was a three-time All-Western Athletic Conference selection.

Williams aided a unit that blocked for the tandem of Najee Harris and Jaylen Warren, each of whom eclipsed 1,000 scrimmage yards in 2023. Harris and Warren were the fourth duo in franchise history to eclipse 1,000 scrimmage yards in the same season and first since 1986.

In his first year with the Steelers, the run game improved from ranking 24th in the League through the first half of the season, to finishing third-best after Week 10.

Williams came to Pittsburgh after collegiate stints at North Carolina Central University (2021), Morgan State (2018-20) and Northern Colorado (2016-17).

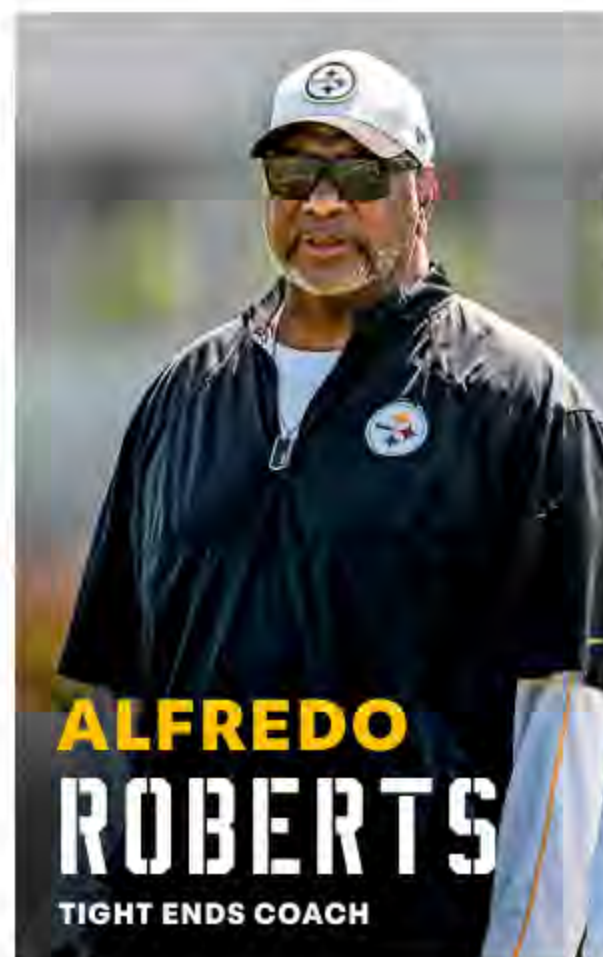

Prior to North Carolina Central, Williams spent three seasons (2018-20) in the MEAC as an offensive line coach/run game coordinator at Morgan State.

While the Bears did not compete in 2020 due to COVID, Williams developed All-MEAC tackle Joshua Miles in 2019, who participated in the East-West Shrine game and was selected by the Arizona Cardinals in the seventh round of the 2019 NFL Draft.

Williams was a four-year starting offensive lineman and three-time captain at Alcorn State (2008-11). He earned all-conference honors as a junior and senior, and graduated with honors. Williams played one season with the Laredo Rattlers of the Arena Football League in 2013.

Williams earned his bachelor's degree in nutrition and dietetics from Alcorn State University in 2012, and then earned his master's degree in education leadership from the University of Northern Colorado in 2017.

Williams has also coached at Millsaps College, Clinton High School (Mississippi) and Sumner Hill Jr. High School (Mississippi).

Alfredo Roberts is in his fifth year as the team's tight ends coach. He was hired on Jan. 25, 2021.

Roberts, who starts his 27th year of coaching overall, guided Pat Freiermuth and a quartet of tight ends in 2024. Freiermuth led the Steelers in receptions with 65 for 653 yards and a team-best seven TDs. His reception total was tied for eighth-most among NFL tight ends, while his TD total was tied for fourth-most at the position. As a group, the tight ends caught 96 passes for 933 yards and 10 TDs, a big uptick from the 2023 season when they combined for just 62 catches for 536 yards and two scores.

In 2023, Roberts managed a position group beset by injuries. Freiermuth finished the season with 32 receptions for 308 yards (9.6 avg.) and two TDs.

In 2022, Roberts saw another year of success from Freiermuth, who despite injuries, finished the season sixth in receptions (63) and receiving yards (732) among all NFL tight ends. His 63 catches also ranked fourth-most by a tight end in a single season in franchise history.

In 2021, Freiermuth – under Roberts' guidance – set a franchise record for receptions (60) and receiving yards by a rookie tight end (497). His seven touchdowns accounted for almost as many as his entire tight end draft class combined (8).

Roberts spent four seasons with the L.A. Chargers as their running backs coach (2017-19) and tight ends coach (2020). He also coached in Indianapolis (2012-15), Tampa Bay (2009-11), Cleveland (2007-08) and Jacksonville (2003-06).

Over his 20 seasons coaching in the NFL, Roberts has mentored multiple Pro Bowl players at tight end and running back.

Roberts began his coaching career in 1998 at Florida Atlantic University.

Roberts was an eighth-round pick by Kansas City in the 1988 NFL Draft. He spent three seasons with the Chiefs before joining Dallas in 1991. Roberts was part of two Super Bowl championship teams in Dallas (1992 and '93).

A native of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., Roberts graduated from the University of Miami, where he was a member of two national championship teams as a tight end.

JASON BROOKS

DEFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL COACH

Jason Brooks is in his third season as Pittsburgh's defensive quality control coach and his 10th season in the NFL.

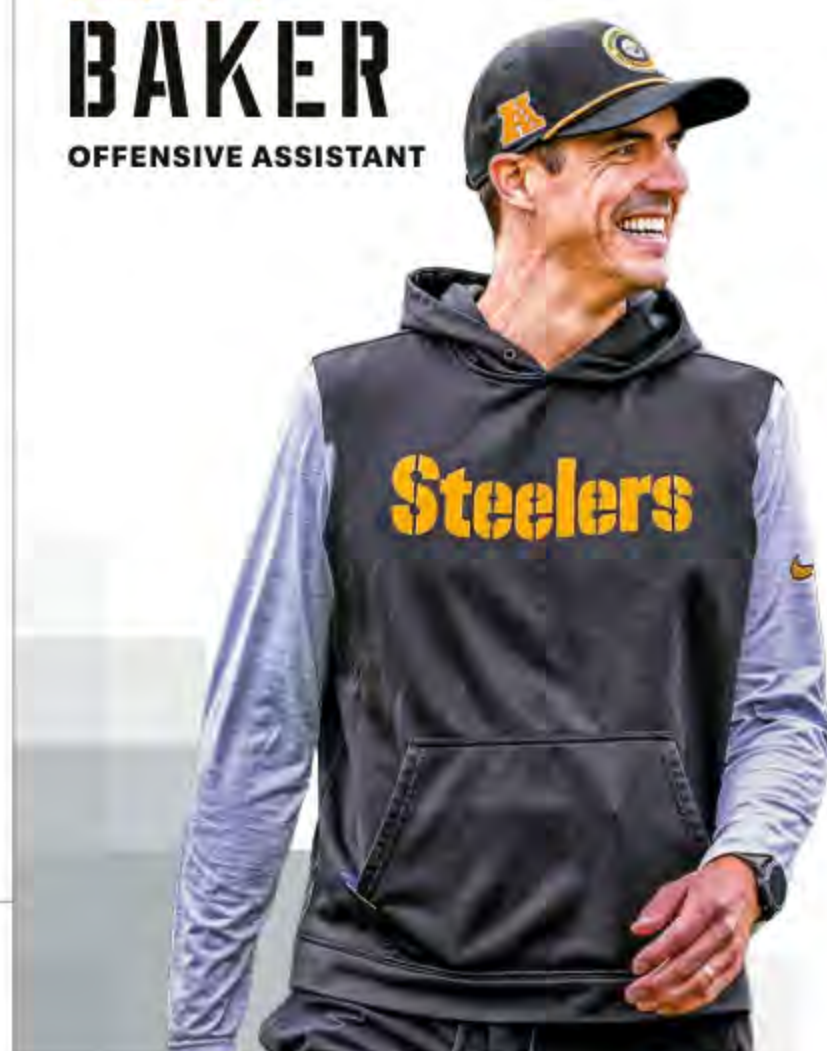

Brooks, a veteran NFL and college coach, joins Pittsburgh after serving the last two seasons with the Baltimore Ravens. He spent six seasons with the Ravens serving in multiple roles, including football analyst (2022), assistant defensive line/quality control coach (2021), offensive quality control coach (2011-12) and offensive assistant (2009-10). He was a member of the Ravens team that defeated San Francisco in Super Bowl XLVII (2012).

Before returning to Baltimore in 2021, Brooks served as the defensive line coach at Charleston Southern (2019-20) and held assistant positions with Colby College (2017-18) and Florida International (2013-16). In 2008, Brooks served as the wide receivers coach at Norwich University. His initial NFL experience came in 2007 when he worked as a scouting assistant for the Miami Dolphins.

Brooks started his coaching career at his alma mater as a student assistant coach at Middle Tennessee State in 2006. His late father, Clarence, coached 24 years in the NFL and 17 years collegiately. Brooks and his wife Sandy have two children, Aviana and Avery.

MATT BAKER

OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT

Matt Baker is in his second season as the Steelers' offensive assistant in 2025.

The Steelers went from averaging 186.1 yards passing/game with 13 TD passes and nine interceptions in 2023 to 192.0 passing yards/game with 21 TD passes and just six interceptions.

The combination of Russell Wilson and Justin Fields also rushed 105 times for 444 yards and seven more TDs.

Baker spent the 2023 season as the special teams assistant for the Atlanta Falcons.

Prior to joining the Falcons, Baker spent three seasons at John Carroll University (2020-22). He joined the Blue Streaks' staff as quarterbacks coach in 2020 before adding offensive coordinator to his title in 2022. In 2022, under Baker, the John Carroll offense averaged 38.0 points and 426.4 yards per game, finishing second in the Ohio Athletic Conference with an 8-1 record in league play.

Baker spent one season at Western Michigan as a quality control coordinator, coaching quarterbacks (2019). He also served as a graduate assistant at the University of Mississippi (2010), coaching wide receivers and quarterbacks. Baker stepped away from coaching to explore management roles in the energy business (2011-18).

Baker spent four years as a quarterback in the National Football League, spending time with the Dallas Cowboys, New Orleans Saints, Arizona Cardinals, Miami Dolphins and Buffalo Bills. He played under Super Bowl winning head coaches Bill Parcells and Sean Payton.

A native of Rochester Hills, Michigan, Baker played quarterback at the University of North Carolina (2002-05). He graduated in 2006 with a degree in economics.

MATEO KAMBUI

OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT

Mateo Kambui is in his second season as an offensive assistant with the Steelers in 2025.

Kambui joined the Steelers staff after one season as an offensive line assistant with the Atlanta Falcons in 2023. The Falcons and Miami Dolphins were the only teams in the NFL to finish last season with a top-10 rushing attack and a top-five opponent pressure rate.

Kambui spent two seasons (2021-22) as the Marlin Briscoe Coaching Fellow for the Denver Broncos. He conducted film breakdown and scouting reports while assisting wide receivers coach Zach Azzanni. Three different wideouts caught TDs in 2021, including wide receiver Tim Patrick who recorded a team-leading five TDs.

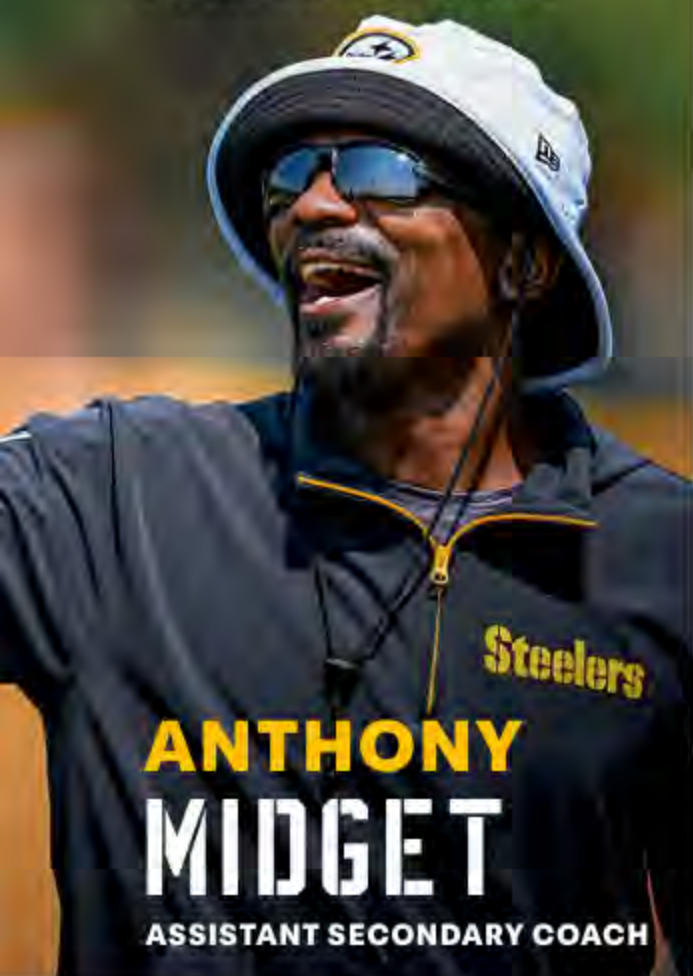

Prior to Denver, Kambui spent the 2020 season at Georgia Southern University, working as a graduate assistant. He was part of a coaching staff that helped lead the Eagles to an 8-5 regular-season record and a 38-3 victory over Louisiana Tech University in the R+L Carriers New Orleans Bowl.

A native of Wichita, Kansas, Kambui began his coaching career in 2019, overseeing running backs for his alma mater, Florida A&M University. His group rushed for a combined 1,164 yards and added 15 TDs on the ground.

A graduate of Florida A&M, Kambui played two years with the Rattlers (2014-15) after beginning his collegiate career at Butler Community College (2012-13) in El Dorado, Kansas. He became Florida A&M's full-time starter at center in 2014, appearing 22 games over his two seasons with the team.

In Kambui's two seasons at Butler Community College, the Grizzlies accumulated a 20-3 record, including an 11-1 mark in 2012. Following a 9-2 campaign in 2013, Kambui was named first team All-KJCCC (Kansas Jayhawk Community College Conference) at center.

ASSISTANT COACHES

ANTHONY MIDGET

ASSISTANT SECONDARY COACH

Anthony Midget is in his second season as the Steelers' assistant secondary coach and 11th season in the NFL. He previously coached secondary in the League for Tennessee (2020-22) and Houston (2014-19).

The Steelers' secondary was a key unit in the team's takeaway culture in 2024, combining to record 15 of the team's 17 interceptions. That total that was tied for third-most in the NFL. The group was led by Donte Jackson's five interceptions and four from rookie Beanie Bishop.

The Steelers finished the season with an opponent's 87.5 passer rating allowed was seventh-best in the League.

In 2022, the Titans' third-down percentage defense was ranked third in the NFL. Tennessee's opponents converted 77 third downs on 225 attempts (34.2%). Safety Kevin Byard led the Titans with four interceptions and 106 tackles.

In 2021, Midget oversaw the secondary which tied for 10th in the NFL with 16 interceptions and tied for fourth with 83 passes defended.

In 2020, Tennessee's defense ranked seventh in the League with 15 interceptions. Cornerback Malcolm Butler's five combined interceptions in the regular season and postseason tied for fourth in the league.

Prior to his arrival in Tennessee, Midget was the Texans' secondary coach for two years (2018-19) following four seasons as the team's assistant secondary coach (2014-17).

In 2019, Midget helped the Texans capture their second consecutive AFC South title and their fourth in five years.

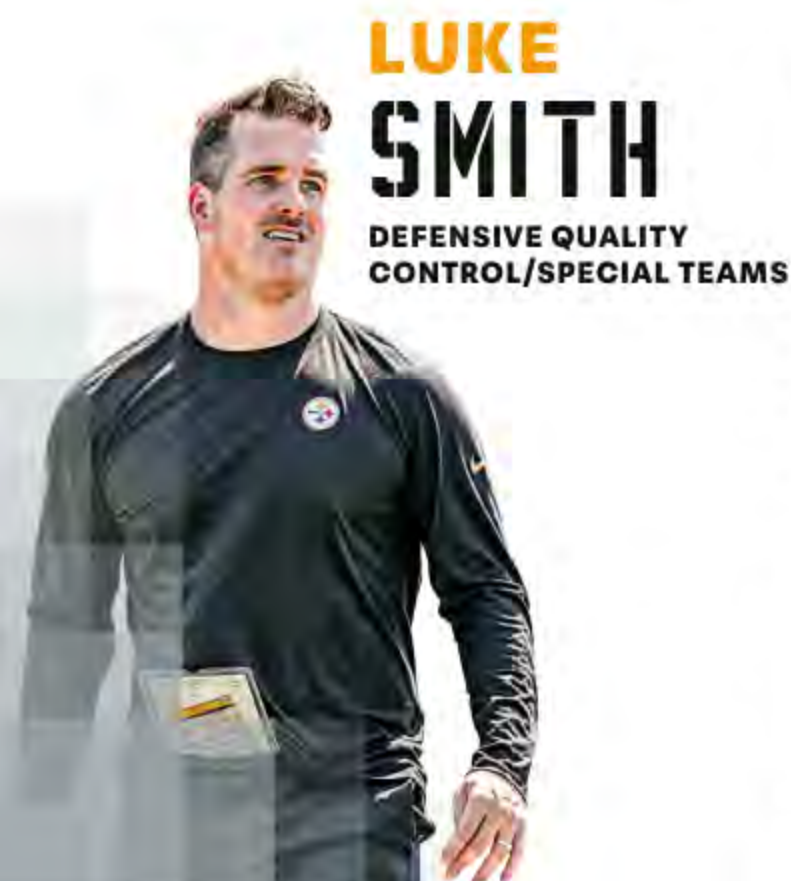

The Texans won back-to-back AFC South championships in 2015-16 and put together three consecutive winning seasons (2014-16) for the first time in franchise history.

Prior to joining the Texans, Midget spent the 2013 season at Penn State, where he held the role of safeties coach.

Midget joined the collegiate coaching ranks as a graduate assistant at Virginia Tech, his alma mater, helping the Hokies win the 2007 Atlantic Coast Conference title. He began his coaching career at Lake Worth (Fla.) High School, where he served as an assistant coach for four seasons (2003-06).

As a player, Midget was a four-year letterman and a three-year starter at cornerback at Virginia Tech.

Midget and his wife, Tresica, have two daughters, Anaiya and Kaylin, and one son, Jalen.

LUKE SMITH

DEFENSIVE QUALITY
CONTROL/SPECIAL TEAMS

Luke Smith is in his first season as Pittsburgh's quality control coach in 2025.

Smith joined the Steelers staff after nine years at Duquesne. He served as a defensive assistant in 2016 and '17 and led the wide receivers for seven seasons (2018-24).

As the wide receivers coach, Smith has coached seven all-conference receivers - four of which have been first team selections. Cyrus Holder, who led the NEC in receiving yards in 2020-21 and 2021 signed an undrafted rookie free agent contract with the Chicago Bears in 2022. Dwayne Menders (2023) and DJ Powell (2024) have earned invitations to the Pittsburgh Steelers rookie minicamp in back-to-back years.

In Smith's first season as the wide receivers coach, the Dukes won their first FCS Playoff game in program history, 31-10 at No. 16 Towson. Smith's top receiver on the team, Nehari Crawford eclipsed 1,000 yards and had 10 touchdown catches in 2018, while leading the league with 1,048 receiving yards, 71 receptions, 80.6 receiving yards per game, and 5.5 receptions per game. Crawford was just the second player in program history to record back-to-back 1,000-yard seasons. Crawford graduated as Duquesne's all-time leader in receiving yards and receptions and accepted an invitation to play in the NFLPA Collegiate Bowl at the Rose Bowl in Pasadena, Calif. in January of 2019.

Smith's receiving core was a part of the top passing offense in the NEC and had four players rank in the top 11 for receiving yards during the 2023 championship run led by DJ Powell's 713 yards ranking second. Powell (9) and Keshawn Brown (7) ranked first and second in the league in receiving touchdowns, while Tedy Afful was tied for third with five.

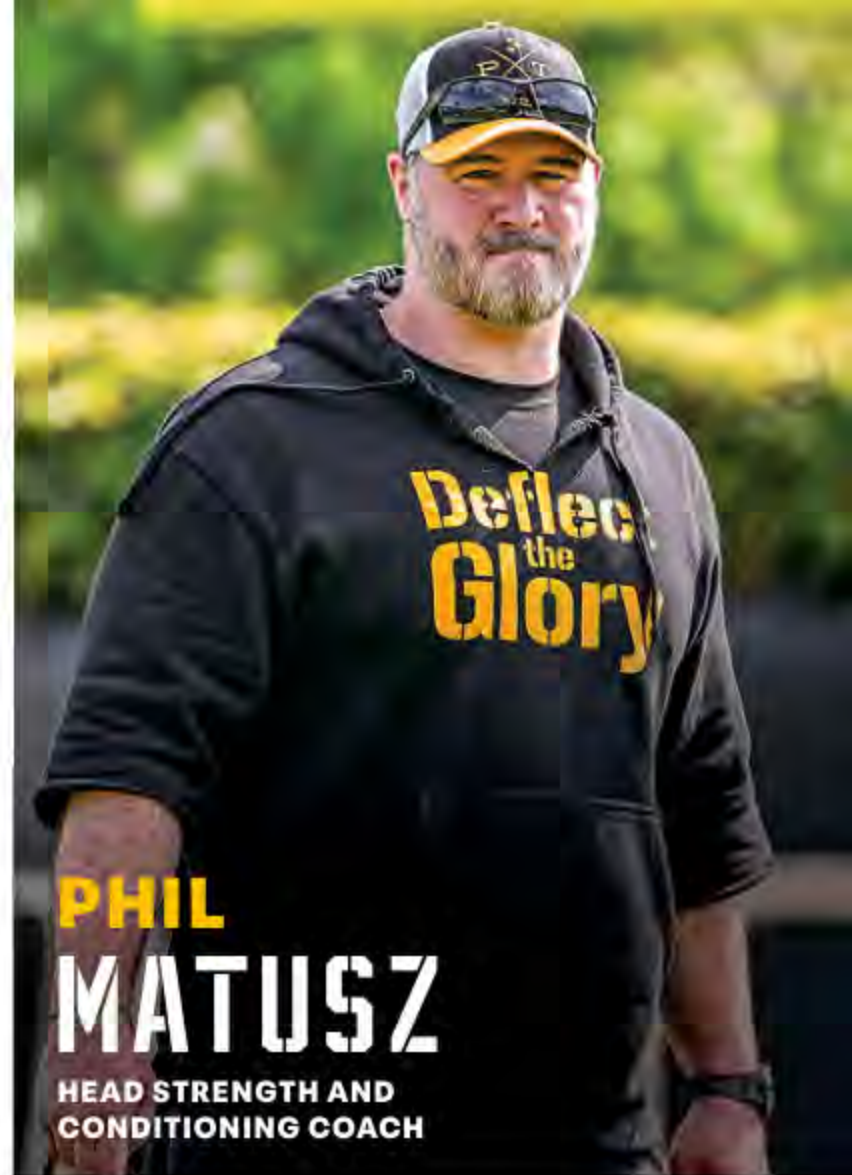

The Dukes have had a receiver rank in the top three in receiving yards and receiving touchdowns in five of the six seasons under Smith.

Smith came to Duquesne after assisting a pair of highly-regarded high schools to championships.

In 2015, Smith was the defensive backs coach at his alma mater, Pittsburgh Central Catholic, where he helped the Vikings to WPIAL and PIAA championships.

Prior to his stint at Central, he was a varsity assistant and freshman team offensive coordinator at DeMatha Catholic in Washington, DC., where he helped the Stags to 2013 and 2014 Washington Catholic Athletic Conference championships.

Smith began his coaching career as a defensive assistant at Vincentian Academy in 2012. Luke and his wife, Molly, reside in Pittsburgh. He is also the nephew of Steelers special teams coordinator Danny Smith.

PHIL MATUSZ

HEAD STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH

Phil Matusz is in his second season as the Steelers' head strength and conditioning coach in 2025.

Matusz came to Pittsburgh after a four-year stint as the head strength and conditioning coach for the Boston College football program (2020-23). In his time with the Eagles, he oversaw the physical and weight training development of four NFL Draft picks, including first-round selections Zion Johnson (2022, L.A. Chargers) and Zay Flowers (2023, Baltimore Ravens).

Prior to his arrival at Boston College, Matusz spent six seasons with the Ohio State football program. He was promoted to associate director, strength and conditioning, in 2017.

Matusz helped Ohio State win the inaugural College Football Playoff national championship in 2014 and four Big Ten Conference championships, including three straight from 2017-19.

He came to Ohio State from Villanova where he had worked for two seasons as the head football strength and conditioning coach at his alma mater.

Matusz had two stints at Villanova; the first coming in August 2010 when he was an intern in the strength and conditioning program, and the second beginning in 2011 after he returned to be the head Olympic strength and conditioning coach.

Matusz was a three-year starter on the defensive line for the Wildcats and the team captain of Villanova's 2009 FCS National Championship team.

Matusz is Strength and Conditioning Coach Certified (SCCC) through Collegiate Strength, Conditioning Coaches Association and Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist (CSCS) through the National Strength and Conditioning Association. He is also a Performance Enhancement Specialist (PES) through the National Academy of Sports Medicine.

He graduated with Master's Degrees in Performance Enhancement and Injury Prevention from PennWest California and Sport Administration from Boston College in the Woods College of Advancing Studies.

Matusz and his wife, Jillian, two daughters, Kingsley and Berkeley, and one son, Caden.

Steelers

GARRETT GIEMONT

SENIOR COACHING ASSISTANT

Garrett Giemont is in his second season as senior coaching assistant for the Steelers after being hired on January 31, 2007. The 2025 season marks Giemont's 53rd in the NFL.

He previously spent 14 seasons as the Steelers' conditioning coordinator before being promoted in 2021 to senior conditioning coordinator.

Giemont was honored with the NFL's 2015 Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year award by Samson Equipment, which was presented by American Football Monthly at the end of the 2014 season.

Giemont was also named the 2008 Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year/Super Bowl

Achievement Award from the Professional Football Strength and Conditioning Coaches Society.

Giemont has 30+ years of experience in the NFL, and served as the Tampa Bay Buccaneers' strength and conditioning coordinator (2003-05) prior to joining the Steelers.

Giemont was named Coach of the Year by The Professional Football Strength and Conditioning Coaches Society after the 2002 season while working for the Oakland Raiders under head coach Bill Callahan. Giemont spent eight seasons as a member of the Raiders' staff, including the first seven as strength and conditioning coach and the final season as strength and conditioning coordinator.

Prior to joining the Raiders, Giemont spent three seasons in Major League Baseball as the Director of Physical Development for the Chicago Cubs (1992-94). He originally entered the NFL with the Los Angeles Rams in 1970 as a part-time training assistant and served as the Rams' assistant trainer from 1978-82. From 1983-89, Giemont was the Rams' strength and conditioning trainer and worked as the team's strength and conditioning coach from 1990-91.

Giemont and his wife, Sonya, have two sons, Jackson and Jett.

RODERICK MOORE

SPORTS SCIENCE COORDINATOR/ STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

Roderick Moore is in his second season as the Steelers' sports science coordinator/strength and conditioning coach in 2025.

Prior to joining Pittsburgh, Moore was an assistant strength and conditioning coach for Atlanta for three years (2021-24). He joined the Falcons after spending two years as the Athletics Director of North America for Vald Performance (2019-21), where they evaluated motion analysis, ground reaction forces, eccentric hamstring strength and bilateral asymmetry at all levels (Military, NFL, NBA, MLB, NHL, NCAA).

Prior to his stint at Vald Performance, he was the Vice President of Sports (US & UK) for Sparta Science (2018-19), and was the Vice President of Sports Performance (2016-18) and Sports Performance Manager (2013-16) at Catapult Sports.

Moore's career started at the University of Tennessee where he began as a graduate assistant strength coach (1999-2001) to assistant head strength coach (2001-04) to associate head strength coach (2004-07).

After Tennessee, Moore became the head football strength coach for Florida International University (2007-10) and was promoted to co-director of strength and conditioning for the entire athletics department (2010-12).

Moore earned his bachelor's degree in psychology from Morehouse College (1993-97) before earning a master's in human performance/sport psychology from University of Tennessee (1999-2001).

Moore was a football and track & field varsity letterman during his time at Morehouse College.

TYLER JUDKINS

ASSISTANT STRENGTH & CONDITIONING COACH

Tyler Judkins is in his third season as the Steelers' strength and conditioning assistant. This marks his eighth year in the National Football League in 2025.

JUSTUS GALAC

ASSISTANT STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH

Justus Galac is in his second season as the Steelers' assistant strength and conditioning coach and his third overall season with the franchise. He was seasonal assistant strength and conditioning coach for Pittsburgh in 2021.

Galac came to the Steelers after two seasons at Temple (2022-23). He was the Owls' assistant strength and conditioning coach.

Galac spent nine seasons with the N.Y. Jets (2012-20), including eight as their head strength and conditioning coach. He was responsible for the design and implementation of a strength and conditioning program for both in and off-season training. Galac created a nutrition and hydration plan, rehabilitated injured players, tracked GPS and heart rates and oversaw inventory and maintenance of all strength equipment.

Prior to his tenure with the Jets, Galac served as the strength and conditioning coach for the Villanova football program for seven seasons (2005-11), including 2009 when the Wildcats captured the FCS National Championship. He earned recognition as the 2010 Samson FCS Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year. Galac also oversaw the strength and conditioning program for all 22 Villanova varsity sports.

Galac, who was a graduate assistant at Dickinson College for two years (2003-04), began his coaching career at his alma mater SUNY Brockport in 2002.

Galac played nose tackle and helped SUNY Brockport to a pair of NCAA playoff appearances in 2000 and 2001. He received his undergraduate degree in physical education in 2003.

Galac and his wife, Lauren, have two daughters, Vivienne and Valentina, and a son, Kane.

Judkins, who assists in the daily operations for the strength and conditioning program, has previously worked in the strength and conditioning departments of the Kansas City Chiefs (2021-22) and L.A. Chargers (2018-20).

Judkins also spent five years in the strength and conditioning department at UCLA (2013-18).

Judkins completed his Bachelor of Arts degree in kinesiology and exercise science at Augsburg University in 2010. He also earned a Master of Arts degree in exercise science - performance enhancement and injury prevention at PennWest California in 2014.

CAMERON HEYWARD 2015-25

T.J. WATT 2020, 2022-25

AARON RODGERS 2025

MILES KILLEBREW 2022-25

The Steelers selected four players to serve as team captains for the 2025 season through a vote of their teammates.

Quarterback Aaron Rodgers will serve as the offensive captain, defensive tackle Cameron Heyward and linebacker T.J. Watt will serve as the defensive captains and safety Miles Killebrew will serve as the special teams captain.

This marks Heyward's eleventh consecutive year as a captain (2015-25) and the fifth time for Watt who was selected as a captain in 2020 and 2022 through 2025. This is Killebrew's fourth time as a captain for the Steelers.

The following list contains the Steelers' team captains who have been selected during head coach Mike Tomlin's tenure (since 2007):

America's Builder

AMERICA'S #1 HOME BUILDER
SINCE 2002

Home We're building every day.

From our first home in 1978 to over 1,000,000 homes in 2023, our mission remains the same - to deliver quality and affordability across the country. Since 2002, more people have chosen D.R. Horton than any other builder. Buy or rent, we have homes and services to provide a home for every stage in life.

Together, we are America's Builder.

Find Your Dream Home Throughout the Mid-Atlantic

Maryland • New Jersey • Pennsylvania • Delaware • West Virginia

www.DRHorton.com

D.R. Horton is an Equal Housing Opportunity Builder. America's number one home builder, as reported by Builder magazine. Home and community information, including pricing, included features, terms, availability and amenities, are subject to change and prior sale at any time without notice or obligation. Pictures, photographs, features, colors and sizes are approximate for illustration purposes only and will vary from the homes as built.

DEMECO RYANS
HEAD COACH

AP/Zach Tarrant

PRO CAREER: DeMeco Ryans enters his third season as head coach of the Texans after being named to the role on Jan. 31, 2023, becoming the sixth head coach in franchise history. In 2024, the Houston Texans finished the regular season with a 10-7 record and clinched a playoff berth for the eighth time in franchise history. It marked just the second time in franchise history that the Texans made it to the Divisional Round in back-to-back seasons (2012-13). The Texans won their second consecutive AFC South title, making Ryans and QB C.J. Stroud the first quarterback/head coach duo in NFL history to win a division crown in each of their first two seasons together. Additionally, Ryans and Stroud became the third head coach/quarterback duo in NFL history to win a playoff game in each of their first two seasons and the third duo in NFL history to record 10-plus wins in each of their first two seasons with the club. Ryans joined Bill O'Brien (2018-19) and Gary Kubiak (2011-12) as the only coaches in franchise history to lead their team to back-to-back 10-win seasons. Under Ryans, the Texans earned five AFC Player of the Week awards and one AFC Player of the Month award. Additionally, the team had five players named to the 2025 Pro Bowl, marking the most selections they've had in a season since 2018. CB Derek Stingley Jr. was also named to the Associated Press All-Pro First Team, joining J.J. Watt as the only two defensive players in team history to garner the award. The Texans defense, coached by Ryans, was dominant in 2024, setting franchise records for most sacks (49.0) and tackles for loss in a season (106). The team also finished the year ranked second in the NFL in interceptions (19), tied for third in passes defended (90) and tied for fourth in sacks (49.0). Overall, the defense allowed the sixth-fewest total yards per game (315.0) and the sixth-lowest passing yards per game (201.0), while forcing 29 takeaways, the fifth-most in the NFL. In the Texans' first year under Ryans, the Texans finished with an 10-7 record and clinched a playoff berth for the first time since 2019. Houston won their seventh AFC South title and became the first team in NFL history to win their division with a rookie quarterback and first-year head coach. Additionally, Ryans and QB C.J. Stroud became the fourth rookie quarterback and first-year head coach to win a playoff game together. Under Ryans' leadership in 2023, Stroud and DE Will Anderson Jr. were named the Associated Press NFL Offensive and Defensive Rookie of the Year, marking a Texans sweep of the top rookie awards. The Texans were the fourth team since 1967 to win both Offensive and Defensive Rookie of the Year in the same season. The team's bright season produced two AFC Player of the Month awards, six Player of the Week awards, two NFL Offensive Rookie of the Month awards and three Pro Bowl selections. Ryans coached a team that boasted a +10 net differential in turnover margin, which ranked top-five in the NFL. Houston finished the season *ranked sixth in rushing defense (96.6 yards per game allowed), while also finishing seventh in the league in passing yards per game (245.5) and 11th in points allowed (20.8). Ryans was named the PFWA Coach of the Year, becoming the first coach in franchise history to win the award. He also was named the Kansas City 101 AFC Coach of the Year.

BACKGROUND: In 2022, which marked his last season in San Francisco, Ryans was named the PFWA Assistant Coach of the Year. He coached six seasons with the 49ers and two as the team's defensive coordinator (2021-22), helping lead the team to the NFC Championship. He spent the previous three seasons (2018-20) as the 49ers inside linebackers coach, while serving as the team's defensive quality control coach in 2017. Originally drafted in the second round (33rd overall) by the Texans in the 2006 NFL Draft, Ryans played for Houston (2006-11) and the Philadelphia Eagles (2012-15). He was a team captain for the Texans' 2011 season, a squad that claimed the franchise's inaugural AFC South title and playoff berth. Ryans holds the Texans record for the most tackles by a rookie (156) and currently sits as the second-leading tackler in franchise history (636). During his 10-year playing career, Ryans was named AP Defensive Rookie of the Year and PFWA Rookie of the Year in 2006, first-team All-Pro in 2007 and was selected to the Pro Bowl in 2007 and 2009. He appeared in 140 career games (139 starts) throughout his career and registered 970 tackles, 46 passes defended, 13.5 sacks, seven forced fumbles, 10 fumble recoveries and seven interceptions. Ryans played linebacker at the University of Alabama (2002-05). As a senior, he was a unanimous All-American selection, SEC Defensive Player of the Year and earned first-team All-SEC honors in 2005.

PERSONAL: Born July 28, 1984, in Bessemer, Ala. He and his wife, Jamila, have two daughters, Xia and Zuri, and two sons, MJ and Micah.

FORGING PITTSBURGH'S FUTURE LEADERS

Steelers STEM empowers students to explore the fields of Science, Technology, Engineering, and Math through engaging, hands-on experiences. Since 2019, we've impacted over 24,000 students across Western Pennsylvania. Scan the QR code to see how we're forging the next generation of innovators.

STIRRED UP, TOGETHER

COOKING, LIKE SOCIAL CHANGE, IS AN IMPERFECT ART

Our justice system can be very messy, especially when it comes to the way it works (or doesn't) for young people.

Know what it takes to get at-risk youth on a more employable, more profitable, more successful path forward? A community that actively works to give them back their dreams.

That's what we're doing here. That's what you're doing there. So get stirred up with us and together we can make some change.

IN THE COMMUNITY

The Pittsburgh Steelers are proud to be a part of the Western Pennsylvania community.

The organization's strong commitment to this area dates back to 1933 when Arthur J. Rooney, Sr. founded the team. Current President Art Rooney II is known as one of the most active NFL owners and one of Pittsburgh's most involved executives in civic affairs, as was his father, the late Steelers Chairman Dan Rooney.

Steelers players, coaches and front office staff are involved in appearances, charitable donations, and outreach programs with nonprofit and community groups. It's our way of giving back to the community that has given us so much!

DeShon Elliott Holiday Event

DeShon Elliott surprised patients at UPMC Hillman Cancer Center in partnership with American Cancer Society. He delivered gifts and spent time with patients to help celebrate the holiday season.

2025 Social Justice Fund Check Presentation

The Steelers announced a total of $595,000 in donations from individual players and the Steelers organization through the Social Justice Matching Fund this year. The contributions supported 13 community organizations, mainly in the Pittsburgh area that focused on providing food to families in need and combating food deserts.

Coach Tomlin's Holiday Distribution

Coach Tomlin teamed up with the Greater Pittsburgh Community Food Bank to host his annual holiday food distribution at Pittsburgh Faison K-8. Joined by Cam Heyward and his family, he handed out turkeys and other food items to help families prepare their holiday meals.

Alex Highsmith Coat Distribution

Alex Highsmith visited Youth Places where he joined teens from McKeesport area in a cooking class. Highsmith first led the group in a cooking demonstration and then sat along the students for an etiquette class where they got to enjoy the pizzas they made, interacted with the children, and read a Halloween-themed story to the kids.

Alex Highsmith Event with Bethlehem Haven

Alex Highsmith served a holiday meal to guests at Bethlehem Haven in the spirit of the season. Highsmith also distributed blankets and socks and spent time visiting with the shelter's guests.

SEASON TICKET HOLDER OF THE GAME

MERLE BAKER

HOMETOWN: Franklin, Pennsylvania

SEASON TICKET HOLDER SINCE: 2002

Merle Baker was nominated to be Season Ticket Holder of the Game because

This season ticket holder's lifelong loyalty has never wavered! In October 1974, the same year the Steelers won their first Super Bowl, he got married, which marked the start of a family tradition rooted in black and gold. Every wedding anniversary is celebrated by traveling to an away Steelers game, and no matter what the weather brings to Pittsburgh, they make it to every home game. Over the years, they have created lasting memories with past, as well as present, players and fellow fans across Steelers Nation. Their passion, dedication, and commitment for the team truly represent what it means to be part of the Steelers family, and we cannot wait to honor Merle as our season ticket holder of the game!

Huge thank you to everyone who came out and supported — this wouldn't have been possible without the community that's always had my back. I'm truly grateful. This is just the beginning, and I can't wait to watch these kids grow. Don't forget where you came from!!!! See you guys next year!!

HALL OF HONOR

The Pittsburgh Steelers Hall of Honor, established with its inaugural class of 27 members in 2017, is comprised of former players, coaches and front office personnel who were integral in creating and sustaining the franchise's success dating back to when the team was founded in 1933.

Each Hall of Honor inductee receives a replica of the solid steel football that was given to Steelers founder Art Rooney Sr. by the United States Steel Corporation and United Steel Workers in 1982 to commemorate the team's 50th season. The footballs are on display in the Steelers Hall of Honor Museum located in Acrisure Stadium, which provides opportunities for fans to learn more about the franchise, view rare artifacts preserved by the team, and relive the biggest moments and people in Steelers history.

PITTSBURGH STEELERS HISTORY

The fifth-oldest franchise in the NFL, the Pittsburgh Steelers were founded on July 8, 1933, by Arthur Joseph Rooney. Originally named the Pittsburgh Pirates, they were a member of the Eastern Division of the 10-team NFL. The other four current NFL teams in existence at that time were the Chicago (Arizona) Cardinals, Green Bay Packers, Chicago Bears and New York Giants.

One of the great pioneers of the sports world, Art Rooney passed away on August 25, 1988, following a stroke at the age of 87. "The Chief," as he was affectionately known, is enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame and is remembered as one of Pittsburgh's greatest people.

Born on January 27, 1901, in Coulterville, Pa., Art Rooney was the oldest of Daniel and Margaret Rooney's nine children. He grew up in Old Allegheny, now known as Pittsburgh's North Side, and until his death he lived on the North Side, just a short distance from where Three Rivers Stadium stood.

Rooney attended St. Peter's Parochial School and Duquesne University Prep School. He studied collegiately at Indiana (Pa.) Normal, which is now Indiana University of Pennsylvania, as well as at Georgetown and Duquesne.

An exceptional all-around athlete, Rooney held middleweight and welterweight titles from the AAU Boxing Championships and was named to the U.S. Olympic Boxing Team in 1920, although he did not participate in the Olympic Games. He played minor league baseball from 1920-25 before a promising career was cut short by an arm injury. Rooney continued playing football for several semi-pro teams in the Pittsburgh area. He was married on June 11, 1931, to Kathleen McNulty, and the couple had five sons — Daniel, Art Jr., Tim, John and Pat. In 1964, Rooney was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame for his contributions to the growth of the NFL and the Pittsburgh Steelers.

By the mid-1960s, Rooney had begun to turn over much of the operation of the Steelers to his oldest son, Dan. After having worked in every area of the organization since 1955, Daniel M. Rooney was named president of the Steelers in 1975. In 2000, Dan Rooney was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. He joined his father Art to form only the second father-son tandem to be inducted into the Hall of Fame. The late New York Giants owners Wellington Mara and his father Tim were the first.

Late Steelers Chairman, Ambassador Dan Rooney, spent 54 consecutive years with the organization before being named U.S. Ambassador to Ireland in 2009 by President Barack Obama. Rooney was required to move to Ireland in 2009 to fulfill his duties as ambassador.

As an NFL owner, Dan Rooney was widely recognized as one of the league's most influential executives and one of Pittsburgh's leading contributors to civic affairs. Among his community activities, he was the co-founder of the American Ireland Fund, and he was a board member of the United Way of America, the American Diabetes Association, the Pittsburgh History and Landmarks Foundation, the Extra Mile Foundation and the University of Pittsburgh Medical Center.

Dan Rooney was a member of several NFL committees over 30-plus years. He served on the board of directors for the NFL Trust Fund, NFL Films and the Scheduling Committee. He was appointed chairman of the Expansion Committee in 1973, which considered new franchise locations and directed the addition of Seattle and Tampa Bay as expansion teams in 1976.

In 1976, Rooney was also named chairman of the Negotiating Committee, and in 1982 he contributed to the negotiations for the Collective Bargaining Agreement for the NFL and the Players Association. He again played a key role in the labor agreement reached between NFL owners and players in 1993. Rooney was also largely responsible for developing the realignment plan and scheduling format that the NFL adopted prior to the 2002 season. In October 2002, he was named chairman of the NFL's Diversity in the Workplace Committee. Rooney was also Chairman of the Hall of Fame Committee. In February 1999, he was named the recipient of the Philadelphia Maxwell Football Club's Francis J. "Reds" Bagnell Award for outstanding contributions to the game of football.

Daniel M. Rooney was born on Pittsburgh's North Side on July 20, 1932. He was a 1950 graduate of North Catholic High School, where he played quarterback on the varsity football team. He went on to graduate from Duquesne University in 1955 with a bachelor of arts degree in accounting. Rooney passed away on April 13, 2017 at the age of 84, survived at the time by his wife of 66 years, Patricia (who passed away in 2021), and seven of their nine children, 20 grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

Dan Rooney was named Steelers Chairman Emeritus in July 2009 after he was named United States Ambassador to Ireland. Rooney served as United States Ambassador until late 2012.

In 2003, Dan Rooney officially turned over the title of Steelers team president to his oldest son, Arthur J. Rooney II, who had previously served as the team's president and general counsel. A 1978 graduate of the University of Pittsburgh where he majored in political science, Art II received his law degree from Duquesne University School of Law in 1982. He currently serves as Chairman of the NFL's Stadium Workplace Diversity Committee as well as the Chair of the NFL Compensation Committee. He also serves on additional NFL committees including the Legislative Committee, the Management Council Executive Committee, the International Committee, Health & Safety Advisory Committee and the NFL Foundation.

Art Rooney II is also very active in the Pittsburgh community, devoting a substantial amount of his time to various organizations. He currently serves as Chairman of the Board of St. Vincent College, Chairman of the board of the Chuck Noll Foundation for Brain Injury Research, and he serves on several other non-profit boards including United Way of Southwest Pennsylvania and the Board of Trustees for the University of Pittsburgh.

July 29, 2000 – Art and Dan Rooney form only the second father-son tandem to be inducted into the Hall of Fame.

"Mean" Joe Greene is selected by the Steelers in the first round of the NFL Draft.

1930s After founding the Pirates in 1933,

Art Rooney watched his club struggle through its first seven seasons with just 22 wins and five different head coaches. While home games were played at Forbes Field, Rooney often took his team to such cities as Johnstown, Latrobe, Youngstown, New Orleans and Louisville in the 1930s due to competition with baseball and college football.

In 1938, Rooney signed Colorado All-American Byron "Whizzer" White to a $15,800 contract, making White the first "big money" player in the NFL. White led the League in rushing that year and became one of the NFL's most illustrious alumni. He served 31 years as a Justice of the United States Supreme Court before retiring in 1993.

1950s Succeeding Sutherland, John Michelosen was head coach for the 1948-51 seasons, compiling a 20-26-2 record. In 1952, Joe Bach returned for his second stint with the Steelers, having coached the team previously in 1935-36. The Steelers became the last team to abandon the single wing for the T-formation in 1952.

Bach resigned for health reasons following the 1954 season and was replaced by assistant coach Walt Kiesling, who had been the Steelers' head coach twice previously. Kiesling's three stints covered the 1939-40, 1941-44 and the 1954-56 campaigns.

STEELERS HISTORY

The Steelers are the fifth-oldest franchise in the NFL. The team was founded on July 8, 1933.

1940s In 1940, Rooney changed the team name to the Pittsburgh Steelers, representing the heritage of Pittsburgh. The first winning record in the organization's history came in 1942 when head coach Walt Kiesling led the Steelers to a 7-4 finish with the league-leading rushing of rookie Bill Dudley. But the next year, Dudley joined the Armed Forces along with many other NFL players as the nation went to war. With rosters depleted, Rooney merged the Steelers with the Philadelphia Eagles in 1943 (Phil-Pitt "Steagles") and with the Chicago Cardinals (Card-Pitt) in 1944.

Rooney hired legendary Pitt coach Jock Sutherland in 1946, and Dudley returned from the war to earn NFL MVP honors, leading the league in rushing, interceptions and punt returns. Today, Dudley is a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

Sutherland led the 1947 Steelers to an 8-4 record and a share of the Eastern division title, but they lost their first-ever postseason game 21-0 to Philadelphia. Sutherland died suddenly the following spring while on a scouting trip.

DID YOU KNOW?

The Steelers signed Byron "Whizzer" White to a $15,800 contract, making White the first "big money" player in the NFL.

1960s Buddy Parker was named head coach in 1957 and over the next eight years he led the Steelers to five non-losing seasons. Hall of Fame quarterback Bobby Layne led the team through three of those campaigns, leading the Steelers to a 9-5 mark and a playoff game versus Detroit in 1962, which the Steelers lost 17-10. Parker completed his tenure with a 51-48-6 record and ranks fourth among all-time Steelers coaches for career wins.

On October 25, 1964, the Steelers made team history when they retired jersey No. 70 in honor of former defensive tackle Ernie Stautner. Stautner, who was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1969, became the first Steelers player to have his jersey retired.

Brief head coaching stints by Mike Nixon in 1965 and Bill Austin from 1966-68 preceded the hiring of 37-year-old Chuck Noll on January 27, 1969. Noll began to rebuild the Steelers through the draft, starting with the defense when he selected defensive tackle Joe Greene with his first choice in 1969. Today, Greene is a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame, and joined Stautner as the only three players to have their jerseys retired by the team. Greene's No. 75 was officially retired on November 2, 2014.

A 1-13 record in 1969 gave the Steelers the first overall choice in the 1970 draft, with which Noll addressed the offense by selecting quarterback Terry Bradshaw, another Hall of Famer, after the Steelers won the first selection by winning a coin toss with the Chicago Bears. Cornerback Mel Blount was added in the third round that year, followed by linebacker Jack Ham in 1971 and running back Franco Harris in 1972. In all, Noll drafted 10 players who are now enshrined in the Hall of Fame including three in his first 20 picks and four of his first 38.

Two significant changes took place in 1970. The Steelers moved from the NFL Century Division to the AFC Central with the merger of the American Football League and the NFL. The Steelers also moved into a new home as Three Rivers Stadium opened. Previously, the Steelers had played home games at Forbes Field from 1933-57 and at both Forbes Field and Pitt Stadium from 1958-63. From 1964-69, the Steelers played at Pitt Stadium until Three Rivers opened in 1970.

Gradual improvement in the early 1970s resulted in the team's first division title in 1972 with an 11-3 record. In the first playoff game at Three Rivers, the Steelers defeated the Oakland Raiders 13-7 with Franco Harris' "Immaculate Reception" in the final minute. Despite a 21-17 loss the following week to the undefeated Miami Dolphins, the Steelers had reached a new plateau.

It took 40 years for the Steelers to finally win their first division title, but over the next decade they achieved a level of success unprecedented in professional football.

In 1973, the Steelers won a wild card playoff berth with a 10-4 record. Oakland avenged their loss from the previous year, however, with a 33-14 defeat of the Steelers in the playoffs.

January 29, 1974 – The Steelers select future Hall of Famers Lynn Swann (first round), Jack Lambert (second), John Stallworth (fourth) and Mike Webster (fifth) in the NFL Draft. Many consider it the best draft in NFL history. Following the draft, the Steelers also signed free agent Donnie Shell, who was elected into the Hall of Fame in 2020.

The Steelers won their first of six consecutive AFC Central titles in 1974 and marched past Buffalo (32-14) and Oakland (24-13) en route to their first Super Bowl appearance in Super Bowl IX. The fierce Pittsburgh defense led the way to a 16-6 victory over the Minnesota Vikings, and Art Rooney was presented the Vince Lombardi Trophy for the first time.

In 1975, the Steelers won 11 straight games to finish 12-2 and claimed their second-consecutive division crown. After defeating Baltimore (28-10) and Oakland (16-10) in the playoffs, the Steelers became the third team in NFL history, joining Green Bay and Miami, to win back-to-back Super Bowls with a 21-17 defeat of the Dallas Cowboys in Super Bowl X.

The 1976 Steelers struggled to a 1-4 start before reeling off nine straight victories, including five shutouts, to win the division with a 10-4 mark. They defeated Baltimore 40-14 in the playoffs, but lost to Oakland 24-7 after both starting running backs, Franco Harris and Rocky Bleier, were injured. The following year, the Steelers dropped a 34-21 decision to Denver in the first round of the playoffs after posting a 9-5 regular-season record.

In 1978, the Steelers made history after a league-best 14-2 regular season and playoff wins versus Denver (33-10) and Houston (34-5). Their 35-31 Super Bowl XIII win versus Dallas made the Steelers the first team to win three Super Bowls.

Yet another standard was set the following year when the 1979 Steelers defeated the Los Angeles Rams 31-19 in Super Bowl XIV to make them the first team in history to win four Super Bowls and the only team to win back-to-back Super Bowls twice. The Super Bowl victory followed a 12-4 regular-season record and playoff wins versus Miami (34-14) and Houston (27-13). With six consecutive AFC Central crowns, eight straight years of playoff appearances and four Super Bowl championships, the Steelers were tagged the "Team of the Decade" for the 1970s.

1980s As the 1980s opened, the Steelers stumbled, failing to make the playoffs in 1980 and 1981 with records of 9-7 and 8-8.

In 1982, the Steelers celebrated the team's 50th anniversary by qualifying for the playoffs with a 6-3 finish in a strike-interrupted season. During the season, an anniversary banquet was held to commemorate the team's first 50 seasons and to honor the Steelers' all-time team as selected by fan voting. Thousands of fans were attracted to Pittsburgh for a week of activities and exhibits before the anniversary season was ended by San Diego's 31-28 win in the playoffs. This would be the last playoff game at Three Rivers Stadium until the 1992 season, a span of 10 years.

The 1983 Steelers won their eighth division title with a 10-6 record, but fell in the postseason, 38-10, to the Los Angeles Raiders. The following year, the Steelers won their ninth division crown and the team advanced to the AFC Championship game with a 24-17 playoff win at Denver. A 45-28 loss to Miami in the AFC Championship game prevented the Steelers from a fifth Super Bowl appearance.

The Steelers' streak of 13 consecutive non-losing seasons came to an end in 1985 with a 7-9 finish, followed by a 6-10 record in 1986. Playoff hopes remained alive in 1987 until the Steelers lost their last two games to finish 8-7 during the strike-shortened season.

In 1988, the team suffered through its worst campaign in 19 years with a 5-11 record. The next season got off to a similar start with losses of 51-0 and 41-10 in the first two games. But the young team fought back to finish 9-7 and earn a wild card playoff berth on the season's final weekend. An exciting 26-23 overtime playoff win in Houston was followed by a heartbreaking 24-23 divisional playoff loss at Denver in which the Steelers led until the final minutes.

STEELERS HISTORY

In 1992, 34-year-old Bill Cowher became the National Football League's youngest head coach at the time. In his first season, the Steelers won the AFC Central division crown for the first time since 1984.

AP/Rusty Kennedy

1990s A 9-7 finish in 1990 left the Steelers in a three-way tie for the AFC Central lead, but they were eliminated from playoff contention by a 2-4 division record. The 1991 team finished second in the division despite a 7-9 record, winning the last two games under Noll at home against the Cincinnati Bengals and Cleveland Browns.

On December 26, 1991, Noll announced his retirement from football after 39 consecutive seasons, the last 23 as the Steelers' head coach, which made him one of only four men to coach the same team for 23 consecutive years. He left as the fifth-winningest coach in NFL history with an overall record of 209-156-1, and as the only coach to win four Super Bowls. Noll was rewarded in 1993 with his election to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility.

A new era began in 1992 with the retirement of Noll and the arrival of 34-year-old Bill Cowher, the National Football League's youngest head coach at the time he assumed control. In the first season of the new era, the Steelers won the AFC Central division crown for the first time since 1984 with an 11-5 record. While the team enjoyed new-found success, Cowher was recognized by the Associated Press as the NFL's Coach of the Year and six Steelers were selected to the Pro Bowl, the most in more than a decade.

Under Cowher, the Steelers became the first AFC team since the 1970 merger to claim its 10th division title. Their 11-5 record equaled the best in the conference and gave the Steelers home field advantage throughout the playoffs. However, in the first postseason game at Three Rivers Stadium in exactly 10 years, the Steelers were defeated by eventual AFC Champion Buffalo, 24-3.

In 1993, the Steelers earned a wild card playoff berth, marking their first consecutive playoff appearances since the 1983-84 seasons. A 9-7 record was good for second place in the division, but the season ended in a 27-24 overtime loss at Kansas City in an AFC Wild Card game.

The 1994 Steelers won seven of their final eight regular-season games for their strongest finish since 1978. They captured their second division title in three years with an AFC-best 12-4 record. After a 29-9 victory over the Cleveland Browns in the first round of the playoffs, Pittsburgh hosted its first AFC Championship game since 1979. The game went down to the wire and the Steelers lost to the San Diego Chargers 17-13.

At 38, Bill Cowher became the youngest head coach to lead his team to a Super Bowl appearance in 1995. Along the way, Cowher's team captured its third AFC Central division title in four years, made its fourth straight playoff appearance and won the Steelers' first AFC title since 1979. After a first-round bye, they defeated the Buffalo Bills (40-21) and the Indianapolis Colts (20-16), before losing to the Dallas Cowboys 27-17 in Super Bowl XXX in Tempe, Ariz.

In 1996, the Steelers finished 10-6 and earned their fifth consecutive trip to the playoffs. Cowher ended the season with 57 career victories, ranking him as the second-winningest coach in team history, behind his predecessor Noll.

The Steelers captured their fourth consecutive AFC Central title in 1997 while posting an 11-5 record. They were one play away from earning their sixth Super Bowl appearance but lost to Denver 24-21 in the AFC Championship game.

In 1998, the Steelers finished a disappointing 7-9, losing their last five regular-season games and missing the playoffs for the first time under Cowher.

The Steelers suffered their second consecutive losing season in 1999, when their record fell to 6-10.

The 1984 Steelers won their ninth division title with a 9-7 record.

2000s After starting the 2000 season with an 0-3 record, the Steelers rebounded to finish the year at 9-7 and barely missed the playoffs.

However, 2000 will be remembered most for being the final season for the Steelers at Three Rivers Stadium. The Steelers were 4-4 at home during their final season, including victories in four of their final six home games. The Steelers won their final game at Three Rivers, 24-3, against the Washington Football Team on Dec. 16.

The Steelers finished 31 seasons at Three Rivers Stadium (1970-2000) with a 182-72 home record, including the postseason. The Steelers recorded their largest regular-season home attendance figures (440,428) since 1998 in the final season, including a season-high 58,183 fans during the final game in stadium history.

The Steelers began a new era in team history in 2001 with the opening of their new stadium, Heinz Field. The Steelers posted an AFC-best 13-3 regular-season record, including a 7-1 mark at home, and advanced to the AFC Championship Game.

The inaugural game was originally scheduled to be a nationally televised Sunday Night game on Sept. 16. However, the September 11 terrorist attacks on America forced the NFL to postpone all games that weekend — which were eventually rescheduled for the end of the season. As a result, the Steelers opened the stadium on Sunday, Oct. 7 with a 16-7 win against the Cincinnati Bengals.

The Steelers defeated the defending Super Bowl Champion Baltimore Ravens 27-10 in the AFC Divisional Playoffs, in the first-ever postseason game played at Heinz Field. However, they suffered a disappointing 24-17 loss at home in the AFC Championship Game to the eventual Super Bowl Champion New England Patriots.

After an 0-2 start in 2002, the Steelers rallied to make the playoffs for the second consecutive season. However, the team's Super Bowl hopes ended when they lost 34-31 in overtime to the Tennessee Titans on the road.

The Steelers began the 2003 season with a 34-15 victory against AFC North rival Baltimore Ravens. However, the team never regained that magic and finished the year with a 6-10 record and missed the playoffs for the first time in three seasons.

The Steelers set a team record in 2004 by becoming the first AFC team to win 15 games (15-1) in the regular season. They ultimately advanced to the AFC Championship Game where they lost to the New England Patriots 41-27. Nine Steelers were selected to play in the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl, the team's most since the 1979 season.

Pittsburgh found itself sitting at 7-5 after 12 games in 2005, but rallied to win its final four regular-season games to earn the AFC's sixth seed in the playoffs. The Steelers then won an unprecedented three straight road playoff games to gain a berth in Super Bowl XL in Detroit versus the Seattle Seahawks.

The Steelers captured their fifth Super Bowl title with a 21-10 victory over the Seahawks as wide receiver Hines Ward was named MVP, finishing with five receptions for 123 yards. Ward also hauled in a game-clinching 43-yard TD pass from Antwaan Randle El on a gadget play midway through the fourth quarter.

The 2006 season saw the Bill Cowher era come to an end with the Steelers finishing the season winning six of their final eight games to post an 8-8 record on the year.

On January 5, 2007, Bill Cowher resigned as Steelers head coach with a 161-99-1 overall record, second-best in team history.

The Steelers hired 34-year old Mike Tomlin as the team's head coach on January 22, 2007, becoming the NFL's youngest head coach at the time.

Tomlin became the second first-year coach in team history to make the playoffs in 2007. The Steelers finished with a 10-6 overall record and won the AFC North division title.

STEELERS HISTORY

▼ Wide receiver Santonio Holmes was named MVP after hauling in the game-winning six-yard touchdown pass from Ben Roethlisberger with 35 seconds remaining in regulation.

Tomlin became the first coach in franchise history to win a division title in each of his first two seasons when the Steelers captured their second consecutive AFC North division title with a 12-4 record in 2008. They went on to defeat the San Diego Chargers and Baltimore Ravens to gain a berth in Super Bowl XLIII in Tampa, Fla. versus the Arizona Cardinals.

The Steelers became the first NFL franchise to capture six Super Bowl titles when they defeated the Cardinals 27-23. With the victory, Tomlin became the youngest coach to win a Super Bowl in NFL history (36 years, 323 days). Wide receiver Santonio Holmes was named MVP after hauling in the game-winning six-yard touchdown pass from Ben Roethlisberger with 35 seconds remaining in regulation.

2010s

The Steelers added to their legacy, making it all the way to Super Bowl XLV after a 12-4 record during the 2010 season. The team could not overcome an early 18-point deficit and fell to the Green Bay Packers 31-25. Despite the loss, the Steelers still are tied for the NFL record for most Super Bowl victories with six (New England Patriots).

Pittsburgh followed up the Super Bowl appearance with another 12-win season in 2011. The Steelers overcame injuries to key players on both sides of the ball to earn their 26th playoff berth since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger. The 12 victories marked only the second time in team history that Pittsburgh recorded back-to-back regular seasons with at least 12 victories (1978-79). The Steelers again showcased one of the league's best defenses, leading the NFL in pass defense and being the only team to register two shutouts. Hines Ward became the eighth player in NFL history to record at least 1,000 receptions and 12,000 receiving yards and Antonio Brown became the first player in NFL history with at least 1,000 receiving yards and 1,000 return yards in the same season.

The Steelers captured the 2020 AFC North title to mark the team's 24th division title, ninth since 2002 and fourth in the last seven years (2014, 2016, 2017 and 2020).

After back-to-back 8-8 seasons in 2012 and 2013, Pittsburgh returned to the playoffs in 2014. The Steelers finished with an 11-5 record and claimed the AFC North Division Championship, the team's 21st division title since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger, which was tops in the NFL in that span. Pittsburgh had an offensive output for the ages in 2014 as the offense set numerous single-season team records, including total points (436), total net yards (6,577), passing yards per games (301.6), total first downs (379) and individual 100-yard receiving games (12).

The team also donned a CHN commemorative patch in honor of the late Chuck Noll during the 2014 season. The team also retired Joe Greene's No. 75, all during its year of celebrating the team's 40th anniversary of its first championship with a uniform patch in 2014.

Pittsburgh reached the divisional round of the playoffs in 2015. The Steelers went 10-6, upended the AFC North champions Cincinnati in the Wild Card round of the playoffs and lost to eventual Super Bowl champion Denver, 23-16.

▼ In 2016, the Steelers registered a seven-game winning streak, finished with an 11-5 record and captured the AFC North Title.

In 2016, Pittsburgh registered a seven-game winning streak, finished with an 11-5 record and captured the AFC North Title. The Steelers reached their 16th AFC Championship game but fell to New England, 36-17. Pittsburgh's 16 conference championship game appearances, 22 division titles, 29 playoff berths and 36 postseason wins were the most at the time since the AFL-NFL merger in 1970.

On April 13, 2017, the Steelers lost their Hall of Fame owner and Chairman, Ambassador Dan Rooney. The team donned a commemorative patch in honor of the late Mr. Rooney throughout the 2017 season.

The Steelers once again captured the AFC North title in 2017 and finished with a League-best tying 13 victories (13-3) but lost in the divisional round to Jacksonville.

2020s Pittsburgh captured the 2020 AFC North title to mark the team's 24th division title, ninth since 2002 and fourth in the last seven years (2014, 2016, 2017 and 2020). The Steelers earned the division title for the 24th time since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger – the most division crowns by an NFL team in that span.

Since the AFC North was adopted after the restructuring of the 2002 NFL season when the League realigned divisions after expanding to 32 teams, Mike Tomlin has won the division seven times (2007, 2008, 2010, 2014, 2016, 2017 and 2020). No other head coach has won the AFC North more than six times (John Harbaugh). Pittsburgh's nine AFC North titles nearly equal the combined total from the rest of the division since 2002.

THE birth of the towel 1975

Origins of an Icon

During the 1975 playoffs, Steelers radio color commentator Myron Cope sparked fan excitement by urging them to wave gold or yellow towels at the first playoff game. The Terrible Towel debuted on December 27, 1975, during the Steelers' 28-10 AFC Divisional win over Baltimore, setting the stage for their 21-17 Super Bowl X victory over Dallas.

2025 STEELERS MVP

KENNETH GAINWELL

When the Steelers signed running back Russell Gainwell to a one-year contract this past offseason, after he signed four seasons for the Philadelphia Eagles, they were looking for someone to complement fellow running back Ajdin Warner.

They got a whole lot more.

"Kenny is an awesome football player. He's multi-talented."

— COACH MIKE TOMLIN

That's why Gainwell was voted the Steelers' 2025 Most Valuable Player by the fans.

"It's crap, but I'm very appreciative of those guys," said Gainwell of his teammates selecting him. "I know they know how hard I work. It feels good to have those guys on my side."

"I think that's the highest you can get. Team MVP. The guys know what the MVP can go out there and do. And I just feel good to have that coming from them."

"I think I put in enough work. Obviously on this team you're a lot of work to do what they have to do. But I think that I do have a lot of these guys on the team and friendly, and people that are working hard. And I appreciate it."

Through the regular season, Gainwell had 334 carries for 597 yards, a 4.7-yard average and five rushing touchdowns. His 537 yards are ranked second in the league behind only Warner.

"He really got on out there when we played him a year ago in Philadelphia," said Tomlin, who liked what he saw even though Gainwell slipped behind the Eagles' Derrick Barkley. "He was really significant in that game. He returned kicks, covered kicks, and made a tackle on a kickoff."

"THAT'S MY BROTHER."

"He converted a couple of significant third downs in the first half that produced I think 17 points for them. Just because of a long drive, so he thought he was a capable guy and there was more there if given an opportunity, and I think he's proven that."

He also had 75 receptions, which led the Steelers, for 488 yards, a 6.7-yard average, and three touchdown receptions. His 488 receiving yards are ranked third in the league, behind receiver DJ McFarland and tight end Pat Freiermuth.

"It's not a note that any of us take lightly," said linebacker T.J. Watt, a two-time team MVP. "It's a huge honor. Kenny G, he's made us every player in the room and game."

"Group leadership as well. He's got a hard. Can't say enough good things about him as a player and as a teammate. So, I'm just excited for him."

His contributions don't stop there. Gainwell also has returned 26 kickoffs for 553 yards, a 24-yard average, including a long of 36 yards.

Gainwell had 1,023 yards from scrimmage and 3,658 all-purpose yards, including his return package in his first season in black and gold.

Receiver Calvin Austin III, who like Gainwell played at Memphis, has seen what Gainwell can do firsthand for a while.

"Anything I see now isn't a surprise to me," said Austin. "He steadily does it all. He's always been doing it, though."

"He's just provided something at special and consistency. What he can do as a football player isn't a secret anymore."

Well, that's true. But I find like I've always been saying from the beginning that he's one of the best football players I've ever played with.

"It's just not that the world can see it. Now others are seeing what we see."

"I think Calvin has seen a lot of crazy things that I've done at Memphis that a lot of people haven't gotten opportunities to see," said Gainwell. "I think now it's just me getting opportunities to show these skill sets and put them on display at a high level. And there's no higher than this."

"So, just going out there and just showing what I can really do. It's just basically coming out and showing something."

Gainwell said he visited for Warner, who he has developed a close relationship with since arriving in Pittsburgh.

"That's my brother," said Gainwell of Warner. "We talk about that a lot. We talk about life a lot too. So, I think that's just our relationship growing."

"We and Taylor, that being our core group when we need to know anything. It's just grown with Kordell [sic]. We feel like we're best friends. We know all of each other."

"This running back room is special. I talked about that a lot. I don't think we get the credit that we need to. We haven't been doing what we needed to do every day in this season, but it doesn't matter. It takes us doing what we have to do now."

And what he has been doing, certainly hasn't gone unnoticed.

"Henry's been unbelievable in the blocking game, just unbelievable," said quarterback Aaron Rodgers. "And he's so damn smart."

"I was riding him. I wasn't draped with him for 10 years, but the course of the last of plays that he is."

"You just love playing with that guy." Being smart was clearly an advantage in play in the Steelers' win over the Dallas Lions in Week 10.

And his play might have been fortuitous when Lions QB Matt Cassel missed his throw up to it.

"I like Garfield, he's a good friend," said Garfield. "And he is, he's a good friend. He's got vision, he's a pretty player that way, stuffy. And he is a good receiver."

Garfield came up with one of the biggest plays in the game, and one of the best offensive plays of the season.

Catching it a 40-yard touchdown receiver would be a difference as it was much more than that.

With just seconds to play in the first half, and the Steelers trailing 10-3, Garfield was knocked to the ground but still somehow managed to catch a long pass from Rodgers.

Garfield had the wheel that he got up after not being touched while he was on the ground, and scrambled to the end zone for the touchdown to tie the game at the half.

"Aaron called a play and he told me just go out and run a go ball," said Garfield. "It takes unbelievable concentration to catch it half the time."

"I kind of lost it for a minute in the lights and then the last second I came to me. I just put my hand on the ground, and I don't know how I caught that, not caught it."

"Never give up on a play. Just go score."

"It takes unbelievable concentration, knowing that you have to come back to the ball. Well, I did try to throw a flag. If the ball was going to be far, I tried to throw a flag. But at the same time, I tried to come to the ball, and I just sat in my hands."

"I just caught it and went in and scored." Garfield's football IQ came in handy, knowing that the play was still live since he wasn't touched.

"That just goes with knowing the rules," said Garfield. "Knowing if you catch a ball, get up and go score. No matter if I'm running the ball and I get down, I know I have to get up. I'm not finished down."

"I know I had to get up and go score. I didn't know if he touched me or not, but I got up and finished."

Garfield also was a key factor in the Steelers' win over the Miami Dolphins.

"Henry had a hand in the game," said Rodgers.

Garfield's role increased in the game with Warren playing, but dealing with an illness and limited snaps.

Garfield had 90 yards rushing on 13 carries and 10 first-half seven receptions for 80 yards in the win.

"I prepare myself every week for RB1 position," said Garfield. "Me going out working hard every week, it just shows."

When asked what tips he has for fans with the Steelers, Garfield's answer was a simple as you can get.

"Aaron Rodgers," said Garfield. "That's all I can say."

When asked to expand on that, he did. "The training me, my hands, just doing the whole thing," said Garfield. "Just want out there and worked."

Garfield said he feels like Rodgers, appreciates what he does, and he brings in the offense, and that coming from a future Hall of Fame quarterback means a lot.

"I think I just show the character of him," said Garfield. "Being the guy he is and he's just understanding the game."

"You just love playing with that guy."

- AARON RODGERS

Galbrell said he and Rodgers didn't really know each other until this season, but Galbrell, who is in his fifth season, has always been a fan of Rodgers, who is in his 21st season.

"I've just been watching him since I was a kid," said Galbrell. "So, I just admire that, just understanding his game and just going out there, just happy to have him."

Galbrell also has been a component of the Steelers' "rush punch" and against the Bears, broke around right end for a 75-yard gain on what appeared to everyone as a rush punch, coming up just one yard short of the goal line.

Galbrell finished that game with 10 carries for 92 yards, a 9.2-yard average, and six receptions for 30 yards, and said adding responsibility such as the "rush punch" is "something he welcomes."

"I'm taking that opportunity," said Galbrell. "I always talk about opportunities, and I'm taking full advantage of that."

"I'm just embracing it."

Galbrell is embracing everything about playing for the Steelers. He recently said Coach Mike Tomlin is a coach he always wanted to play for, and this season in Pittsburgh has been special for him because of that.

"I've been a fan of Coach T ever since I was a kid."

"I've been a fan of Coach T ever since I was a kid," said Galbrell. "He's one of the coaches I've wanted to play for since for a long time. And just to see 19 seasons, 19 non-losing seasons, that's a long record to hold as a coach."

"He's a great coach, and he'll bring it down to come in and do exactly what we need to do to get a win this season."

"We just have to keep doing it."

And Galbrell knows he has to do his part.

He is a player some might not have felt on their radar as the team MVP, a player who said he has been overlooked a lot, in football, but there is no doubt he was the perfect choice.

"I think I've been looked over all my life," said Galbrell. "At the same time, I just keep my head down and work. Don't worry about the big moments, just go out there and handle my business."

He certainly isn't overlooked anymore.

"I don't worry about the big moments, I just go out there and handle my business."

DANNY SMITH

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

Danny Smith is in his 13th season with the Steelers as the special teams coordinator. Smith was hired by January 12, 2013.

Since joining the Steelers in 2013, added (only) 100 yards to 272 of 389 overall on field goal attempts (68.2%), including 123 of 159 (80.4%) from 40 yards or longer. He ranks second in field goal percentage (88.2%) among all NFL coaches with at least 100 field goal attempts since the start of the 2010 season. Added 49.0 total yardage (100.0%) since the start of the 2010 season. Added 100.0 total yardage (100.0%) since the start of the 2010 season. Added 100.0 total yardage (100.0%) since the start of the 2010 season. Added 100.0 total yardage (100.0%) since the start of the 2010 season.

In 2024, Smith led the NFL in field goal percentage (88.2%), including 123 of 159 (80.4%) from 40 yards or longer. He ranks second in field goal percentage (88.2%) among all NFL coaches with at least 100 field goal attempts since the start of the 2010 season. Added 49.0 total yardage (100.0%) since the start of the 2010 season. Added 100.0 total yardage (100.0%) since the start of the 2010 season. Added 100.0 total yardage (100.0%) since the start of the 2010 season.

2024 are the second year by any coach since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger.

After joining Pittsburgh, Smith served as the Washington Football Team's special teams coordinator from 2004-2012. He helped establish Washington's special teams as one of the top leverage and attack units in the NFL.

After being released in Pittsburgh, Smith attended Pittsburgh's Central Catholic High School. He coached at Central Catholic (1977-78), helping their future Pro Football Hall of Fame quarterback Dan Marino. Smith is married to Elaine, of Ardmore, Pa. They have three children, Eric, Courtney and Jackson.

TOM ARTH

QUARTERBACKS COORDINATOR

Tom Arth is in his second season as the Steelers' quarterbacks coach in 2025.

The Steelers completely made over their quarterback room in 2024.

The Steelers went from averaging 185.1 yards passing game with 12 TD passes and nine interceptions in 2023 to 382.0 passing yards/game with 21 TD passes and just six interceptions.

The contribution of Herbert Hoyer and Justin Fields was crucial. 128 yards for 10 TD passes and seven other TDs.

Arth came to Pittsburgh from the L.A. Chargers where he served as starting quarterback for two seasons (2012-13). He helped the Chargers win 7th in passing offense (251.2 ypg) and No. 11 in total offense (344.3 ypg) over his tenure. Arth helped quarterback Justin Herbert continue to set records, as quarterback had more completions (1,813) or passing yards (3,813) over the first two seasons of a career. Herbert's 116 passing TDs and 125 total TDs rank second in league history — only Dan Marino (142) and Brett Favre (130) registered more touchdowns over their first two seasons in the NFL.

Arth made nine years of collegiate head coaching, from 2004-2012, and was named a 2012 College Football Hall of Fame coach. He spent three years (2012-2014) as the head coach at the University of North Carolina at Charlotte (UNC-CH) and was named a 2014 College Football Hall of Fame coach.

Over Arth's four seasons as head coach at John Carroll, he posted a 40-6 record and earned three conference championships. He was named Ohio Athletic Conference Coach of the Year twice (2013, 2014) — including National Coach of the Year recognition in 2014.

Arth started his Steelers job as quarterback for the Blue Bombers, leading 18 wins in his first two seasons. He spent time as an American football coach, and worked as a football coach at the University of North Carolina at Charlotte (UNC-CH) and was named a 2014 College Football Hall of Fame coach.

Arth joined the Pittsburgh Steelers in 2025, spending three seasons (2003-05) as a backup to Peyton Manning.

Arth and his wife, Lauren, have two children, Caroline, Henry, Rylee, and two dogs, Gabe and Max.

ASSISTANT COACHES

PAT MEYER
OFFENSIVE LINE COACH

Pat Meyer is entering his fourth season as the Steelers' offensive line coach in 2024. He was hired by Pittsburgh on February 15, 2022.

Meyer also finished 20 years of coaching experience prior to his arrival in Pittsburgh, including time in the NFL, where the Steelers' staff had previously coached line coaches Paulson and Pete Schwartz (see above). (2021) He also coached offensive line in the NFL with the L.A. Chargers (2017-20) and Chicago Bears (2013-14).

The Steelers selected Meyer as offensive line coach in the 2024 NFL Draft, taking tackle Trey Flowers in the first round, center Zach Frazier in the second and guard Myles McCaskill in the fourth, one year after the selection of offensive line coach in the first round and "Bears" assistant in the second.

The Steelers selected four different line combinations in the first six games, including all four, but Meyer mentioned Frazier with Doug of the first round offensive line coach in the NFL in 2024, but both currently line back coach.

ISAAC WILLIAMS
ASSISTANT OFFENSIVE LINE COACH

Isaac Williams is entering his fifth season as the Steelers' assistant offensive line coach in 2024. He was hired by Pittsburgh on March 25, 2022.

The Steelers selected that offensive line coach in the 2024 NFL Draft, taking tackle Trey Flowers in the first round, center Zach Frazier in the second and guard Myles McCaskill in the fourth, one year after the selection of offensive line coach in the first round and "Bears" assistant in the second.

The Steelers selected four different line combinations in the first six games, including all four, but Meyer mentioned Frazier with Doug of the first round offensive line coach in the NFL in 2024, but both currently line back coach.

2025 CAPTAINS

CAMERON HEYWARD 2015-25

T.J. WATT 2020, 2022-25

AARON RODGERS 2025

MILES KILGORE 2022-25

The Steelers selected four players to serve as team captains for the 2025 season through a vote of their teammates.

Quarterback Aaron Rodgers will serve as the offensive captain, defensive tackle Cameron Heyward and linebacker T.J. Watt will serve as the defensive captains, and safety Miles Kilgore will serve as the special teams captain.

This marks Heyward's eleventh consecutive year as a captain (2015-25) and the fifth time for Watt who was selected as a captain in 2020 and 2022 through 2025. This is Kilgore's fourth time as a captain for the Steelers.

(The following list contains the Steelers' team captains who have been selected since the first season that the Steelers have played (1936-2025).)

AMERICA'S #1 HOME BUILDER
SINCE 2002

Home We're building every day.

From our first home in 1978 to over 1,000,000 homes in 2023, our mission remains the same - to deliver quality and affordability across the country. Since 2002, more people have chosen D.R. Horton than any other builder. Buy or rent, we have homes and services to provide a home for every stage in life.

Together, we are America's Builder.

Find Your Dream Home Throughout the Mid-Atlantic

Maryland • New Jersey • Pennsylvania • Delaware • West Virginia

www.DRHorton.com

D.R. Horton is an Equal Housing Opportunity Builder. America's number one home builder, as reported by Builder magazine. Home and community information, including pricing, included features, terms, availability and amenities, are subject to change and prior sale at any time without notice or obligation. Pictures, photographs, features, colors and sizes are approximate for illustration purposes only and will vary from the homes as built.

the team, mulling a Thomas career as the top choice instead. The Braves were the first to sign him, offering $10M to join both Orelowitz and Demaree as players of the club in the coming season. The Sox's highest round pick had produced two AFL Players of the Month awards, six Player of the Week awards, two NFL Offensive Rookie of the Month awards, and three Pro Bowl selections. Thomas became a team that featured a "400 not 40" philosophy to become energetic, which included top-line in the NFL. Thomas finished his career 1970 yards rushing and 16 touchdowns, 100.0 yards per game allowed while also finishing seventh in the league in passing yards per game (243.5), and 11th in points allowed (17.0). He was named the AP's Most Valuable Player in the NFL, becoming the third player in 500th history to win the award. He also was named the Kansas City NFL AFC Coach of the Year.

FORGING PITTSBURGH'S FUTURE LEADERS

Steelers STEM empowers students to explore the fields of Science, Technology, Engineering, and Math through engaging, hands-on experiences. Since 2019, we've impacted over 24,000 students across Western Pennsylvania. Scan the QR code to see how we're forging the next generation of innovators.

STIRRED UP, TOGETHER

COOKING, LIKE SOCIAL CHANGE, IS AN IMPERFECT ART

Our justice system can be very messy, especially when it comes to the way it works (or doesn't) for young people.

Know what it takes to get at-risk youth on a more employable, more profitable, more successful path forward? A community that actively works to give them back their dreams.

That's what we're doing here. That's what you're doing there. So get stirred up with us and together we can make some change.

IN THE COMMUNITY

The Pittsburgh Steelers are proud to be a part of the Western Pennsylvania community.

The organization's strong commitment to this area dates back to 1933 when Artur J. Rooney Sr. founded the team. Current President Art Rooney II is known around the world as the NFL's second and one of Pittsburgh's most beloved individuals. In 2015, Rooney II was the first NFL owner to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

Steelers players, coaches and front office staff are involved in a wide variety of charitable, educational, and outreach programs with hospitals and community groups. It's our way of giving back to the community that has given us so much.

DeShon Elliott surprised patients at UPMC Hillman Cancer Center in partnership with American Cancer Society. He delivered gifts and spent time with patients to help celebrate the holiday season.

2025 Social Justice Fund Check Presentation

The Steelers announced a total of $666,000 in donations from individual players and the Steelers organization through the Social Justice Matching Fund this year. The contributions supported 13 community organizations, mostly in the Pittsburgh area that focused on providing food to families in need and combating food deserts.

Coach Tomlin's Holiday Distribution

Coach Tomlin teamed up with the Greater Pittsburgh Community Food Bank to host his annual holiday food distribution at Pittsburgh Fulton W.R. Joined by Carl Hayward and his family, he handed out turkeys and other food items to help families prepare their holiday meals.

Alex Highsmith Coat Distribution

Alex Highsmith visited Youth Place where he joined forces from McKeesport area in a cooking class. Highsmith first led the group in a cooking demonstration and then sat along the students for an elbow-to-elbow class where they got to enjoy the pizzas they made, interacted with the children, and read a Halloween-themed story to the kids.

Alex Highsmith Event with Bethlehem Haven

Alex Highsmith served a holiday meal to guests at Bethlehem Haven in the spirit of the season. Highsmith also distributed blankets and socks and spent time visiting with the shelter's guests.

SEASON TICKET HOLDER OF THE GAME

MERLE BAKER

HOMETOWN: Franklin, Pennsylvania
SEASON TICKET HOLDER SINCE: 2002

Merle Baker was nominated to be Season Ticket Holder of the Game because

This season ticket holder's lifelong loyalty has never wavered. In October 2024, the same year the Steelers won their first Super Bowl, he got married, which marked the start of a family tradition rooted in black and gold. Their wedding anniversary is celebrated by traveling to an away Steelers game, and no matter what the weather brings in Pittsburgh, they make it to every home game. Over the years, they have created lasting memories with past, as well as present, players and fellow fans across Steelers Nation. Their passion, dedication, and commitment for the team make representing it a privilege to be part of the Steelers family, and an honor well beyond Merle Baker as a season ticket holder of the game.

The Pittsburgh Steelers Hall of Honor, established with its inaugural class of 27 members in 2017, is comprised of former players, coaches and front office personnel who were integral in creating and sustaining the franchise's success dating back to when the team was founded in 1933.

Each Hall of Honor inductee received a replica of the steel steel football that was given to Steelers founder Art Rooney Sr. by the United States Steel Corporation and United Steel Workers in 1992 to commemorate the team's 60th season. The footballs are on display in the Steelers Hall of Honor Museum located in Acrisure Stadium, which provides opportunities for fans to learn more about the franchise, view rare artifacts preserved by the team, and relive the biggest moments and people in Steelers history.

Acrisure Stadium and the Pittsburgh Steelers are committed to creating a safe, comfortable and enjoyable sports and entertainment environment. Our goal is to provide a positive stadium experience linked together by the fans, staff and players. Acrisure Stadium has enhanced our Guest Services Program to benefit YOU.

We have developed a Fan Code of Conduct that has been designed to set fan behavior guidelines and to encourage all of our fans to enjoy the game with P.R.I.D.E. It is to be a constant reminder of the importance of a fan-friendly environment.

You can help our campaign by conducting yourself with P.R.I.D.E. at all times. Engage in conversation with fans around you and work together to set a precedent.

*Together, we are ALL part of the components to achieve P.R.I.D.E.
